World Music Philip V. Bohlman, 2020 From folk music to worldbeat world music holds the power to evoke the exotic and give voice to the voiceless This new edition shows how dramatic political changes are affecting the ways in which people produce and listen to world music and addresses how new technologies and the internet alter the way we disseminate and listen to it Advances in Human Factors and Ergonomics in Healthcare and Medical Devices Jay Kalra, Nancy J.

Lightner, Redha Tair, 2021-07-07 This book is concerned with human factors and ergonomics research and developments in the design and use of systems and devices for effective and safe healthcare delivery It reports on approaches for improving healthcare devices so that they better fit to people s including special population s needs It also covers assistive devices aimed at reducing occupational risks of health professionals as well as innovative strategies for error reduction and more effective training and education methods for healthcare workers and professionals Equal emphasis is given to digital technologies and to physical cognitive and organizational aspects which are considered in an integrated manner so as to facilitate a systemic approach for improving the quality and safety of healthcare service The book also includes a special section dedicated to innovative strategies for assisting caregivers patients and people s needs during pandemic Based on papers presented at the AHFE 2021 Conference on Human Factors and Ergonomics in Healthcare and Medical Devices held virtually on 25-29 July 2021 from USA the book offers a timely reference guide to both researchers and healthcare professionals involved in the design of medical systems and managing healthcare settings as well as to healthcare counselors and global health organizations The Trialism and Application of Human Settlement, Inhabitation and Travel

Environment Studies Binyi Liu, 2024-11-11 This book studies human settlements in China in terms of Human Settlements Trialism in 4 typical human settlement types valley plain hilly and arid regions Focusing on three elements of Trialism 1 natural and constructed environments resources and visual landscapes in human settlements background 2 survival strategies customs culture and values in human settlements activity and 3 the layout of time and space as well as the planning and design of the urban the country and the wilderness in human settlements construction the book analyzes the evolution of human settlements and predicts future trends Presenting academic researchers and graduate students in various fields with insights from landscape architecture urban planning architecture geography forestry art and psychology the book discusses the principles of interactive physiological thinking and systematically theoretical philosophy related to professional physiology planning and design principles and traditional and modern methods and technologies in urban and rural construction The innovative multi discipline book promotes the planning and design of five types of human settlement which is helpful to the judgment of value activity rule and living style of human settlements and also discusses the development of human settlements in the new millennium Nordic Dance Spaces Petri Hoppu, 2016-05-06 Dance has been connected to the practices and ideologies that have shaped notions of a Nordic region for more than a century and it is ingrained into the culture and society of the region This book investigates different dance phenomena that have either engaged with or dismantled notions of Nordicness Looking to the motion of dancers and dance forms between different locations organizations and networks of individuals its authors discuss social dancing as well as historical processes associated with collaborations in folk dance and theatre dance They consider how similarities and differences between the Nordic countries may be discerned for instance in patterns of reception at the arrival of dance forms from outside the Nordic countries and vice versa how dance from the Nordic countries is received in other parts of the world as seen for example in the Nordic Cool Festival at the Kennedy Centre in 2013 The book opens a rare window into Nordic culture seen through the prism of dance While it grants the reader new insights into the critical role of dance in the formation and imagining of a region it also raises questions about the interplay between dance practices and politics Living Pictures, Missing Persons Mark B.

Sandberg,2021-10-12 In the late nineteenth century Scandinavian urban dwellers developed a passion for a new utterly modern sort of visual spectacle objects and effigies brought to life in astonishingly detailed realistic scenes The period 1880 1910 was the popular high point of mannequin display in Europe Living Pictures Missing Persons explores this phenomenon as it unfolded with the rise of wax museums and folk museums in the largest cities of Denmark Sweden and Norway Mark Sandberg asks Why did modernity generate a cultural fascination with the idea of effigy He shows that the idea of effigy is also a portal to understanding other aspects of visual entertainment in that period including the widespread interest in illusionistic scenes and tableaux in the portability of sights spaces and entire milieus Sandberg investigates this transformation of visual culture outside the usual test cases of the largest European metropolises He argues that Scandinavian spectators desired an unusual degree of authenticity a cultural preference for naturalism that made its way beyond theater to popular forms of museum display The Scandinavian wax museums and folk ethnographic displays of the era helped pre cinematic spectators work out the social implications of both voyeuristic and immersive display techniques This careful study thus anticipates some of the central paradoxes of twentieth century visual culture but in a time when the mannequin and the physical relic reigned supreme and in a place where the contrast between tradition and modernity was a high stakes game The Young Folk's Cyclopædia of Games and Sports John Denison Champlin,Arthur Elmore
