Using Methods In The Field A Practical Introduction And Casebook:

Using Methods in the Field Victor C. De Munck, Elisa Janine Sobo, 1998 This text shows the leaps of inspiration the challenges the thought processes and the errors inherent in completing a field work project Research Methods for Anthropological Studies of Food and Nutrition Janet Chrzan, John Brett, 2017-02-01 The dramatic increase in all things food in popular and academic fields during the last two decades has generated a diverse and dynamic set of approaches for understanding the complex relationships and interactions that determine how people eat and how diet affects culture These volumes offer a comprehensive reference for students and established scholars interested in food and nutrition research in Nutritional and Biological Anthropology Archaeology Socio Cultural and Linguistic Anthropology Food Studies and Applied Public Health

Understanding Well-Being in the Oldest Old Leonard W. Poon, Jiska Cohen-Mansfield, 2011-04-11 The demographic and social structure of most industrialized and developing countries are changing rapidly as infant mortality is reduced and population life span has increased in dramatic ways In particular the oldest old 85 population has grown and will continue to grow This segment of the population tends to suffer physical and cognitive decline and little information is available to describe how their positive and negative distal experiences habits and intervening proximal environmental influences impact their well being and how social and health policies can help meet the unique challenges they face Understanding Well Being in the Oldest Old is the outcome of a four day workshop attended by U S and Israeli scientists and funded by the U S Israel Bi National Science Foundation to examine both novel and traditional paradigms that could extend our knowledge and understanding of the well being of the oldest old Culture and Meaning in Health Services Research Elisa J Sobo, 2016-06-16 A practical guide to applying interpretive qualitative methods to pressing healthcare delivery problems Nursing and Family Caregiving Anne Neufeld, Margaret Harrison, 2009-11-24 Designated a Doody's Core Title This text is a truly amazing microanalytic compendium of social support strategies in different family configurations in different context and ethnic groups and filling different types of needs From the Foreword by Janice M Morse RN PhD FAAN University of Utah This book serves as an authoritative reference for health care practitioners and researchers concerned with mobilizing support for individuals caring for a disabled adult or child family member The authors integrate numerous types of research to provide a comprehensive compendium of best practices for social support within vulnerable populations This book provides a wealth of insight into the experience of family caregivers and describes the importance of support Nurses practitioners researchers and professionals will find this book useful as they provide care to patients plan programs or develop policies intended to assist family caregivers Armed with this essential knowledge of the best methodological approaches to family caregiving readers will have both the insight and tools to optimize caregiving across the range of hospices treatment facilities and home care Key Highlights Information on supportive interactions reciprocity and the obligations of social support Illustrative examples of the supportive and nonsupportive interactions that real life men and women caregivers have experienced Discussions of social support from the informal social networks of kin and friends

Information on social support within minority populations including the elderly children and immigrants Tourism and Small Business Development in Small Islands of Sabah: Prospects and Challenges Arif @ Kamisan bin Pusiran, Janice L. H. Nga, Kamarul Mizal Marzuki, Mohd Safri Saiman, Noor Fzlinda Fabeil, Rasid Mail, Roslinah Mahmud, Yuzainy Janin, 2019-08-03
The book is an important volume about islands in Malaysia particularly in Sabah It is a useful collection about tourism and small business development with special focus on islands This volume has discussed extensively the potential prospects and challenges related to the islands that the research team has visited It shares valuable insights knowledge and experiences that offer essential references and guidance for various stakeholders as well as future research The research team is thankful and express the utmost appreciation for the support received from the Universiti Malaysia Sabah particularly the Research and Innovation Management Centre to make the study possible Hence the publication of this humble volume that may well benefit the wider audience Knowledge into Action Danny P. Wallace, Connie J. Van Fleet, 2012-06-12 The only book currently available that comprehensively integrates research and evaluation for evidence based library and information science practice Numerous books cover research and evaluation in general but not within the context of library and information science Many others cover the field of library and information science overall but with little focus on research Knowledge into Action Research and Evaluation in Library and Information Science offers in a single volume an expert introduction to these two distinct yet deeply interrelated phases of information gathering as they are practiced in the information sciences Knowledge into Action takes readers through the core principles working processes and practical tools for conducting and evaluating research in library and information science enhancing the presentation with examples informational graphics study questions and exercises directly relevant to this field It is a welcomed resource for students and scholars who want to use appropriate techniques for gathering and assessing research as well as information professionals looking to improve services at their libraries or information centers The book is also designed to educate practitioners as consumers of the research and evaluation literature and as active participants in professional conferences meetings and workshops Environmental Social Sciences Ismael Vaccaro, Eric Alden Smith, Shankar Aswani, 2010-11-11 The relationship between human communities and the environment is extremely complex In order to resolve the issues involved with this relationship interdisciplinary research combining natural sciences social sciences and humanities is necessary In this 2010 book specialists summarise methods and research strategies for various aspects of social research devoted to environmental issues Each chapter is illustrated with ethnographic and environmental examples ranging from Australia to Amazonia from Madagascar to the United States and from prehistoric and historic cases to contemporary rural and urban ones It deals with climate change deforestation environmental knowledge natural reserves politics and ownership of natural resources and the effect of differing spatial and temporal scales Contributing to the intellectual project of interdisciplinary environmental social science this book shows the possibilities social science can provide to environmental studies and to larger global problems and thus will be of equal interest to social and natural scientists and policy makers Journal of the American Dietetic Association ,2000 Anthropological Notebooks ,1999 The Usability Engineering Lifecycle Deborah J. Mayhew,1999-03-22 This text is about achieving usability in product user interface design through a process called Usability Engineering The techniques presented include not only UI requirements analysis but also organizational and managerial strategies Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 WITCHES, WESTERNERS, AND HIV Alexander Rödlach,2006-10-15 A witch s curse an imperialist conspiracy a racist plot Alexander R dlach draws on a decade of research and work in Zimbabwe to compare local beliefs about the cause of the HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa and the impact of these beliefs on public health and advocacy programs The Journal of Developing Areas ,1997 Benefitting by Design Chemba Raghavan,Arlene E. Edwards,Kim Marie Vaz,2008 The presence of women of color within the practical applications of social science research findings is severely limited since spaces where and when women of color enter the arenas of research methodology research question and intervention design and knowledge generation is often that of the other Benefitting by Design addresses this limitation It does so by locating the experience and knowledge of women of color as its central theme with sections of the text referring to emerging trends that attend to the need for greater representation of women of color in research and academic settings A key theme is the dislodging of currently accepted positions for the experience of women of color as marginalized and subsumed under normative modes of examination to central positions in areas of social science research and clinical practice This is in response to the typical assumption of the need to fix TM women of color be it based on their immigration status sexual orientation race culture class or spiritual practice Benefitting By Design attends to the salient contexts of the lives of women of color from an emic perspective by providing models for addressing the limitations that result from exclusion and strategies for centering the experiential knowledge of women of color in social science research and practice that is designed for their benefit Geolinguistics ,1999 Ethnography of Infant Feeding in Sub-Saharan Africa Lucy Nduta Thairu,2006 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1999 EFL Learning Through Language Activities Outside the Classroom Ruedeerath Chusanachoti,2009 The Writers Directory ,2013
