Scholarship in the Electronic Age Anita Lowry, 1987 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 Automated Detection of Media Bias Timo Spinde, 2025-06-04 This Open Access book explores the automated identification of media bias particularly focusing on bias by word choice in digital media The increasing prevalence of digital information presents opportunities and challenges for analyzing language with cultural geographic and contextual factors shaping how content is portrayed Despite the interdisciplinary nature of media bias research across fields like linguistics psychology and computer science existing work often tackles the problem from limited perspectives lacking comprehensive frameworks and reliable datasets The book aims to advance the field by addressing these gaps and proposing a systematic approach to media bias detection It develops feature based and deep learning approaches for automated bias detection including a BERT based model and MAGPIE a multi task learning model. These methods demonstrate improved performance on established benchmarks showcasing the potential of deep learning in detecting media bias. Finally the author addresses the practical applications of automated bias detection such as enhancing news reading with forewarning messages text annotations and political classifiers and examines the impact of bias on social media engagement.

Women, Work and Computerization A. Frances Grundy, 1997-05-20 This volume considers the submissions to the 6th International IFIP TC 9 WG 9 1 Conference on Women Work and Computerization WWC 97. The conference provides an interdisciplinary forum for researchers practitioners and users in the field of information technology. In this book the authors discuss how different areas of society are being transformed by computer technology but with particular emphasis on changes in women s work and life and how these have come about. Such transformations include the transitions from women s traditional work to work based on modern technology from communicating within personal communities to communicating within virtual communities from traditional job gendering to new perspectives on who does what.
