Writing in French in the '90s R. Ceacutestelin,2001-12 Fin de millénaire French Fiction Ruth

Cruickshank,2009-10-08 The turn of the millennium in France coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market further generating and manipulating crisis In this original wide ranging but closely analytical study Cruickshank contextualizes and reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet teasing out each one s response to this convergence She suggests that the recurrent fictional and cultural trope of the turning point has both aesthetic and critical potential Bringing together analyses spanning literature thought and culture she identifies and critiques the ways in which on the eve of the twenty first century different theoretical and fictional approaches confront the manipulation of crisis discourses Drawing on a long twentieth century of crisis thinking Cruickshank counters the perception that a postmodern model of perpetual crisis is culturally dominant and establ

Education in Canada Sharon Lapkin,1998 The thirteen chapters in this volume present recent empirical studies in French second language education in Canada Many of them are based on thesis research or reports for school boards and provincial and federal agencies They are theoretically grounded in current paradigms and employ leading edge research methodologies The studies address a wide range of substantive issues including core French and immersion program design and outcomes classroom studies teacher development and social and administrative perspectives on FSL education The authors are all active researchers from across Canada This book will be useful to FSL and language teachers in general and to researchers administrators and policy makers BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Revue Canadienne Des Langues Vivantes ,1994 Lesbian Desire in Post-1968 French Literature Lucille Cairns,2002 The focus of this work has been almost exclusively on heterosexual women albeit not necessarily constructed as in the first instance sexual beings Cairn s study focuses on realist texts that appeared after 1968 The importance of that date as a cultural watershed for contemporary France is now a matter of record whereas the concentration on realist fiction goes in some degree against the strongly theoretical and conceptual strain of most of what especially in France goes by the name of women s writing Fictional Feminism Kim A. Loudermilk,2013-08-21 This book focuses on the ways in which second wave feminism has been represented in American popular culture and on the effects that these representations have had on feminism as a political movement Kim Loudermilk provides close readings of four best selling novels and their film adaptations According to Loudermilk each of these novels contains explicitly feminist characters and themes yet each presents a curiously ambivalent picture of feminism these texts at once take feminism seriously and subtly undercut its most central tenets This book argues that these texts create a kind of fictional feminism that recuperates feminism s radical potential thereby lessening the threat it presents to the status quo Australian Journal of French Studies ,1997

chauvinist society However Tatiana Shcherbina's poetry is not primarily political but literary and she shows great versatility in different forms and genres Her playfully meditative essays form the perfect counterpoint to her sophisticated and self-aware poetry Russian English dual language edition
