Spate Prosa:

Hermann Hesse Joseph Mileck, 1980 A critical biography far surpassing the previous ones Times Higher Education Supplement There are to be sure many writers whose biographies are more interesting than their fiction but Hesse is not one of these He led a long and sometimes eventful life with marital tensions travel controversy crises even some thoughts of suicide and a period of time as a student in a home for retarded and unmanageable In addition there was his search which led him through the culture and arts of West and East his views of politics and society of psychology and philosophy The difference between Hesse and other writers is that virtually every shred and patch of his life was brought into his writing his fiction particularly He had to write about himself and there is little of what he wrote that is not confessional in form and therapeutic in function Autobiography is the very matter of his work Mileck's contribution is to extend and fill out the evidence of his life his psychoanalysis his drive toward self realization which was the very engine of his being to show the raw material and thus to invite readers to see how it was transmuted transfigured fantasized poeticized symbolized Los Angeles Times Hesse was a prolific author for some 60 years and his mind drew everything it contemplated into his private wars between flesh and spirit objectivity and subjectivity the longings for society and isolation No one is better qualified to disentangle this abundance than Mileck compiler of the huge two volume Hesse bibliography For completeness then no biography in English compares Kirkus Reviews Mileck provides his own translations of the German quotations from Hesse's works and the eight interpretive chapters are thoroughly indexed making the work readily accessible to researchers and students concerned with specific Hesse questions and themes This very readable book also contains a number of exceptional photographs which together with Mileck's fervor and understanding of the author help create a living image of Hesse the man and the artist Choice Professor Mileck brings to his task an acquaintanceship with Hesse's published and unpublished writings which borders on omniscience This is a literary biography which concentrates on the works and looks at the life of its subject briefly and always in relation to its involvement with the works This is true scholarship which does not make the book less readable and accessible to the general public a solid and valuable book which should make it easier to bring Hesse back into the orbit of serious appreciation in the English speaking world Books and Bookmen New Directions in

Copyright Law Fiona Macmillan, 2007-01-01 This is an exceptional collection of scholarly contemporary thoughts on the future directions of copyright law The contributors to this volume come from many jurisdictions and bring with them their respective rich backgrounds and experiences in copyright law The result is an enlightening collection of papers Yee Fen Lim Journal of Intellectual Property Law and Practice Transparent Minds Dorrit Cohn, 1978 This book investigates the entire spectrum of techniques for portraying the mental lives of fictional characters in both the stream of consciousness novel and other fiction Each chapter deals with one main technique illustrated from a wide range of nineteenth and twentieth century fiction by writers including Stendhal Dostoevsky James Mann Kafka Joyce Proust Woolf and Sarraute Späte Prosa

1847-1856 Heinrich Heine,1988 E.T.A. Hoffmann and the Serapiontic Principle Hilda Meldrum Brown,2006 A comprehensive investigation of Hoffmann s Serapiontic Principle and what it implies for his oeuvre Critics have long sought to elucidate the multilayered texts of E T A Hoffmann by applying to them a particular set of theories and ideas that Hoffmann himself subsumed under the heading of the Serapiontic Principle This principle which Hoffmann expounded in his collection of tales Die Serapionsbr der involves a complex intersection of the artist s faculties of imagination and perception However Hoffmann s mode of presenting his theory presents an unusual problem rather than the usual form of an essay or treatise he adopts a fictional framework complete with a set of characters this in turn sets up a number of perspectives on the theory itself This combination of literary and theoretical elements presents a severe challenge to critics and not surprisingly there has been little agreement about what the principle actually entails or its wider relevance With the principle as prime focus this book provides detailed analysis of a broadly based selection of Hoffmann s texts both theoretical and literary It offers new perspectives on his narrative invention and the range of his theoretical interests thus redefining his place at the forefront of German Romanticism Hilda Meldrum Brown is Professor of German at St Hilda s College University of Oxford

The Late Dramatic Works of Arthur Schnitzler Brigitte Lina Schneider-Halvorson,1978 The Development of the Love Theme in the Works of Hermann Hesse Robert Howard Farquharson,1962 Modernity and the Text Andreas Huyssen,David Bathrick,1989 The study of Austrian and German modernist literature has a long and venerable history in this country There have been no attempts yet however to reassess German and Austrian literary modernism in light of current discussion of modernity and postmodernity Addressing a set of historical and theoretical questions central to current reevaluations of modernism this volume presents American readers with a state of the art account of German modernism studies in the eighties Essays by Jochen Schulte Sasse Russell A Berman Peter Uwe Hohendahl Judith Ryan Mark Anderson Klaus R Scherpe Biddy Martin Klaus L Berghahn and Acbar Abbas center around German and Austrian literary and philosophical prose of the early twentieth century texts by well known authors Kafka Rilke Musil Doblin Benjamin Benn and Junger and less well known ones Franz Jung Carl Einstein Ernst Bloch Lou Andreas Salome are examined Particular attention is paid to the processes and strategies by which certain experiences of modern life are translated into modern aesthetic forms The unique contribution of this volume is that it combines theory with an attempt to reintroduce an historical and contextual dimension The authors believe that their revisions of Ausrian and German modernism will themselves be informed by a new set of questions pertinent to the modernist debate
