

The poster features a dark, atmospheric background. At the top, a close-up of a person's face is shown, but it is heavily distorted with vertical, jagged, black lines that resemble digital corruption or a glitch effect. The eyes are visible through the gaps. Below this, the title 'DARKER NEEDS' is written in a large, stylized, metallic font. The word 'DARKER' is in a darker shade, while 'NEEDS' is in a lighter, glowing shade. In the center, a small, futuristic spaceship with blue lights is positioned above the horizon of the moon. The moon's surface is detailed with craters and is lit from the right, creating a strong contrast with the dark sky.

What Is the Outer Darkness? Kasey Tacker, 2021-07-08 In Christianity the exterior darkness or outer darkness is a place referred to three times in the Gospel of Matthew 8 12 22 13 and 25 30 into which a person may be cast out and where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth Generally the outer darkness is thought to be hell however many Christians associate the outer darkness more generally as a place of separation from God or from the metaphorical wedding banquet that Jesus is expected to have upon his Second Coming A discussion between Zane Hodges and Bob Wilkin on the nature of the outer darkness in Matthew They show it does not refer to hell The Outer Darkness Marty Andrew Cauley, 2012-09-01 Volume two of The Outer Darkness contains the remaining 6 chapters plus 19 appendixes and houses the endnotes and indexes for the entire two volume set Indexes are provided for author subject extrabiblical biblical Greek Hebrew and Slavonic citations To help the visually oriented reader over 375 illustrations are provided within the set covering a wide range of topics and a wide assortment of illustrative techniques such as pictures graphs flow charts and syllogisms Surprisingly perhaps not all defenders of unconditional security within the Free Grace camp would regard the outer darkness as a misthological issue They would see it as being a strictly soteriological issue thus pertaining to salvation from eternal damnation Their arguments have been addressed as well Some writers within the Free Grace community interpret some of the passages regarding the outer darkness soterically but acknowledge that at least one passage is mistholic and thus applicable to believers as a reward issue Although Cauley prefers an exclusively misthological view of the outer darkness he does entertain the plausibility of such a soteric mistholic duality under the auspices of his Principle of Correlativity This principle allows him to integrate divergent points of views held by various kingdom writers regarding the outer darkness For example what impact does one's understanding of the outer darkness have within kingdom circles upon one's interpretation of the Bride of Christ Gehenna and the Second Death Presently kingdom writers are disagreed among themselves as to the exact nature of these potentially intertwined issues Does a misthological understanding of the outer darkness necessarily infer a misthological understanding of the Bride In other words will all believers compose the Bride even if some of them are cast into the outer darkness Does being cast into the outer darkness necessarily entail being cast outside of the kingdom into Gehenna for a thousand years before being allowed into the eternal kingdom Might a believer be hurt by the Second Death For many years Joseph Dillow's book The Reign of the Servant Kings was the most comprehensive treatment of such matters within the Free Grace community He took what might be termed a classical view of the above issues More recently Dillow has performed a synthesis between the classical view and the more extreme views of Gehenna into what The Outer Darkness refers to as a Preteristic Gehenna Bema However this neo Dillowian perspective might be further synthesized with the classical Dillowian perspective into what The Outer Darkness refers to as a Neoclassical Position Therefore The Outer Darkness not only interacts with both the classical Dillowian and neo Dillowian perspectives but also provides the foundation for what comes patterns events feasts ceremonies rituals sacrifices people promises prophecies and even the various laws of the old covenant These parables expose the three fold aspect of the judgement by which the old covenant remains completely abolished The first was when Christ crucified Adam in His body of flesh and separated Adam from Himself The second was when Christ as the Son of Man appeared in judgement over the nation of Israel and the temple in A D 70 through the Roman army destroying the entire old covenant system The third is the subjective experience of the objective reality of Christ s death to be manifested in each one of us personally through the new birth when we identify ourselves with Him by bearing His death and live by His life All the Parables concern themselves with the kingdom of God which is a spiritual kingdom formed within us when our created or soulish life is replaced with the divine life of God in Christ Jesus Since only Christ lives in His kingdom He invites us to live in and by Him who alone is the life thus destroying our Adamic nature that stands in opposition to the will of the Father by His abiding presence within us and enables the transition from Adam the living soul or the realm of death into Christ the life giving Spirit or the realm of life The Parables of Matthew 13 thus consummate the desire of Christ that they may be one when mankind irrespective of denomination caste colour creed and nationality live in and by the life of the One who died and rose for them establishing them in the Father      *The Herald of the Cross.
