The Pain:

Heal the Pain, Comfort the Spirit Dorene O'Hara, M.D., 2016-11-11 Specialists estimate that as many as 60 million Americans suffer from chronic pain and approximately 20 percent of the population in most developed countries reports having chronic pain According to one study chronic back pain alone afflicts more than four million Americans and nearly 50 percent of these are disabled by it Pain is the most frequent cause of disability in the United States with as many as 50 million Americans on short or long term disability leave from work at any one time As these figures suggest chronic pain is extremely difficult to treat successfully it is a complex and baffling phenomenon poorly understood even in the medical centers devoted to its diagnosis and treatment In Heal the Pain Comfort the Spirit Dorene O Hara an anesthesiologist with extensive training in pain management and clinical pharmacology explores treatment techniques developed over many years of studying treating and lecturing on chronic pain She also examines the important contributions made by other clinical professionals and by practitioners of alternative medicine Combining a general survey of the forms of pain therapy with suggestions for how patients can find the most appropriate treatment plan for themselves Heal the Pain Comfort the Spirit provides needed answers for pain sufferers as well as practitioners

Theology of the Pain of God Kazoh Kitamori, 2005-06-10 Until the twentieth century the Western world formulated most Christian theology Fully grounded in this tradition Kazoh Kitamori demonstrates its limitations and problems from a Japanese point of view and suggests a fresh approach to the biblical message Dr Katamori has developed the rst original theology from the East The gospel is the gospel of the cross he says God loves the objects of his wrath What is revealed in the cross is neither the wrath of God alone nor the love of God alone but the synthesis of the two The author s purpose is to clarify this synthesis identi ed as the pain of God By the theology of the pain of God he means the theology of love rooted in the pain of God He brings a new interpretation to this central theme of the Christian faith Today Christian thinkers are calling for an ecumenical theology By helping to renew the faith even as he seeks to reformulate it in non Western terms Dr Kitamori takes an important step toward expanding the dialogue between Christians of the East and West
