DIET

"It's all about balance for me. One meal in the day will be lighter than others, probably during lunch I will [eat something] heavier so that my body has time to burn it off. Night-time is something lighter, and I will always have a big breakfast."

Created by Sabrina

"I drink ice water when I wake up. I drink lots of water. I drink a lot of coconut water; I mix different things in my smoothie; I take fish oil... that kind of thing. And then just getting all the different food groups—all your veggies, fruits, carbohydrates."

"I love juices, they are a crucial part of my diet but I don't think I would be able to live on just juices. I would be in a very bad mood! What is your secret for staying energetic? Although it was difficult at first, I have quit drinking coffee completely and now that I am not dependent on it I feel a lot more energetic without ups and downs. I also avoid a lot of wheat first thing in the morning."

"When I travel, I always have different nuts on me, especially Brazil nuts and almonds, which are great for your hair and nails. Otherwise, I have protein bars or fruit. I think I have a banana in my bag right now."

"I've always loved nutrition and because I've worked out for so many years, I've figured out what's best for my body and keeping my energy up."

EXERCISE

"I like to change it up, I do yoga, swimming, boxing and I have just started paddle boarding but I think that Pilates is my favourite. When I am in New York, I do an hour of resistance training with Justin Gelband, who has been my trainer for 9 years."

"It's calm. I can meditate through it and get some flow with some music. It's a little ritual for me. I do it every time I feel overwhelmed and stressed. I try at least twice a week."

"My favourite exercise is something that doesn't feel like I'm exercising at all, such as swimming in the ocean or playing paddleball."
