Two Different Worlds:

Art and Freedom Edgar Evalt Sleinis, 2003 Art and Freedom introduces a novel classificatory system for representation expression and formalist theories of art Sleinis argues that a characteristic defect of contemporary theories of art is their neglect of the issue of value Probing the issue of progress in art he also emphasizes the need for art to contribute to positive values BOOK JACKET

Edgewalkers Judi Neal, 2006-10-30 In ancient cultures each village had a shaman or medicine man who would visit the invisible world to obtain vital information guidance and healing for members of the tribe These edgewalkers have contemporary counterparts in today's organizations those individuals who don't fit squarely into any one box in their metaphorical travels they interpret trends from the marketplace translate messages across departments and envision the future impact of today's decisions and actions Edgewalking doesn't come without its own risks and challenges these unconventional people often clash with more traditional rule bound colleagues and they are often frustrated by organizational systems that emphasize quantitative results over creative impulses And yet in today's fast changing diverse and globalized business environment organizations must recruit and support these people in order to stay competitive Featuring colorful interviews and practical tools to gauge and manage your own edgewalking skills Edgewalkers explores the opportunities that are created by defying formal boundaries and fostering creativity at every level of the organization They're the first people to volunteer to head up a new business unit lead a cross company initiative or take on an overseas assignment They're the glass half full folks who are constantly thinking out of the box forging alliances with colleagues in other departments seeking out new solutions to old problems and anticipating challenges on the horizon And in today's increasingly diverse workplaces they are often people who have pursued unusual educational and career paths traveled widely and speak more than one language Judi Neal has a term for these people Edgewalkers Literally an edgewalker is someone who walks between two worlds In ancient cultures each village had a shaman or medicine man who would visit the invisible world to obtain vital information guidance and healing for members of the tribe Today's corporate edgewalkers serve a similar function interpreting trends from the marketplace translating messages across departments and envisioning the future impact of today's decisions and actions Edgewalking doesn't come without its own risks and challenges these unconventional people often clash with more traditional rule bound colleagues and they are often frustrated by organizational systems that emphasize quantitative results over creative impulses And yet in today's fast changing globalized business environment organizations must recruit and support these people in order to stay competitive Featuring colorful interviews with edgewalkers from a variety of fields and practical tools to gauge and manage your own edgewalking skills Edgewalkers explores the opportunities that are created by defying formal boundaries and fostering creativity at every level of the organization

John, the Maverick Gospel Robert Kysar, 1993-01-01 This book introduces the reader to the Gospel of John in a unique way Robert Kysar focuses on the religious thought of the Fourth Gospel providing a survey of the major

theological themes He argues that the religious thought of the Fourth Gospel is different than other New Testament literature and presents it in the context of universal religious questions so that it may be viewed as a fundamental human expression of the religious quest This excellent book written in a lively style is distinguished from other introductions to the Fourth Gospel by the way in which it invites the reader to be involved in the reading of the Gospel itself The Passionate Mind Robin Fox,2020-04-07 Consciousness declares Robin Fox is out of context Useful as an adaptation in the Stone Age it brought humanity to the top of the food chain but has now created a world it cannot control The Passionate Mind explores this paradox not through academic demonstration but through satiric dialogues blank verse ruminations lyric narrative and comic verse and Aesopian fables This mix of genres and styles forces us out of our usual linear modes of thinking to confront a harsh thesis Because of consciousness we cannot operate without ideas but once in thrall to ideas whether of love power religion or ideology we cannot operate without destructiveness lest we become imprisoned by them The range of subjects and genres Fox covers includes a verse summary of the key points of human evolution a conference of farm animals ruminating on their social problems visions of a desperate future from a neolithic hunter and a shaman at Lascaux Kafkaesque trial scenes and a new version of God is dead George Washington having lost at Yorktown is put on trial with Adams Jefferson and Benedict Arnold giving evidence Through the persona of Humbert Humbert as decadent Europe the new world of Lolita America is faced with the consequences of its pursuit of happiness Scandinavian utopianism and salvation through romantic eros get their turn and the basic design failure of humanity is examined in a Platonic dialogue A bullfight and the struggle for existence in New Jersey farming lead up to a monologue from a decidedly unlikely Jesus who turns out to be part of an alien plan to control an otherwise out of control human race Through this kaleidoscopic mix Fox mounts a case for a thorough revision of consciousness that breaks realistic boundaries between science the humanities religion and myth

Modality Joseph Melia,2014-12-18 This introduction to modality places the emphasis on the metaphysics of modality rather than on the formal semantics of quantified modal logic The text begins by introducing students to the de re de dicto distinction conventionalist and conceptualist theories of modality and some of the key problems in modality particularly Quine's criticisms It then moves on to explain how possible worlds provide a solution to many of the problems in modality and how possible worlds themselves have been used to analyse notions outside modality such as properties and propositions Possible worlds introduce problems of their own and the book argues that to make progress with these problems a theory of possible worlds is required The pros and cons of various theories of possible worlds are then examined in turn including those of Lewis Kripke Adams Stalnaker and Plantinga Love Letter Stephen E. Price,2014-05-12 Love Letter for a Japanese War Bride is Stephen E Prices memoir of his eternal love for his first wife Ryuko Set primarily in postwar Japan the story provides a window into a new world one that spawned cultural diversity but one that was largely unprepared for and unaccepting of it The tale chronicles the lovers perseverance as they struggle with both the US and Japanese governments to gain permission to marry The narrative is woven into fabrics of cultures traditions attitudes language and history some of which may be unfamiliar but all of which is captivating Above all the unending and redemptive romance in this story captures the purest essence of love with all its twists and turns joys and sorrows highs and lows and culminates in a tragic yet transcendent ending A remarkable memoir and love letter that rings true on every page An intimate and heartbreaking story beautifully told I can think of no other work about Japan and America that reveals more poignantly how love and trust can bridge race and culture even where the odds seem so formidably against this John W Dower Ford International Professor of History Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Pulitzer Prize winning author of Embracing Defeat Japan in the Wake of World War II Language Joseph Vendryes, 1925 Shows safety procedures to prevent injury when working with electricity Stresses alertness planning removal of potential hazards and good housekeeping Urania Camille Flammarion, 1890 A History of Aesthetic Bernard Bosanquet, 1904 A history of aesthetics Bernard Bosanquet, 1904 The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman, James Edwin Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham, 1897 An international journal of general philosophy The Philosophical Review, 1897 Experiments with Handwriting Robert Saudek, 1929 The Expository Times, 1910 The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1910 Inside Experience Joseph Kinmont Hart, 1927 Sermons: Delivered in Brooklyn Tabernacle.
