Unruly Gods Meir Shahar, Robert P. Weller, 1996-08-01 The first study in English to offer a systematic introduction to the Chinese pantheon of divinities It challenges received wisdom about Chinese popular religion which until now presented all Chinese deities as mere functionaries and bureaucrats The essays in this volume eloquently document the existence of other metaphors that allowed Chinese gods to challenge the traditional power structures and traditional mores of Chinese society The authors draw on a variety of disciplines and methodologies to throw light on various aspects of the Chinese supernatural The gallery of gods and goddesses surveyed demonstrates that these deities did not reflect China's socio-political order but rather expressed and negotiated tensions within it In addition to reflecting the existing order Chinese gods shaped it transformed it and compensated for it and as such their work offers fresh perspectives on the relations between divinity and society in China

Rites of Belonging Jean DeBernardi, 2004-02-19 In what is today Malaysia the British established George Town on Penang Island in 1786 and encouraged Chinese merchants and laborers to migrate to this vibrant trading port In the multicultural urban settlement that developed the Chinese immigrants organized their social life through community temples like the Guanyin Temple Kong Hok Palace and their secret sworn brotherhoods These community associations assumed exceptional importance precisely because they were a means to establish a social presence for the Chinese immigrants to organize their social life and to display their economic prowess The Confucian cult of memory also took on new meanings in the early twentieth century as a form of racial pride In twentieth century Penang religious practices and events continued to draw the boundaries of belonging in the idiom of the sacred Part I of Rites of Belonging focuses on the conjuncture between Chinese and British in colonial Penang The author closely analyzes the 1857 Guanyin Temple Riots and conflicts leading to the suppression of the Chinese sworn brotherhoods Part II investigates the conjuncture between Chinese and Malays in contemporary Malaysia and the revitalization in the 1970s and 1980s of Chinese popular religious culture
