Women And Writing:

Women Writing and Writing about Women Mary Jacobus, 2012 United by a common focus on writing by and about women this collection of contemporary essays spanning the novel poetry drama film and criticism emphasises some of the problems of theory and practice posed by writing as a woman and by women's representation in literature The subjects of individual essays range from the nineteenth and twentieth century novel to avant garde film and from Victorian women poets to Russian women poets of today Drawing on structuralism psychoanalysis semiotics socio linguistics and Marxist analyses of literature the diverse essays suggest the variety and vigour of contemporary feminist literary criticism as well as representing the debates animating it Successfully bridging the gap between literary criticism and literary production the scope of this collection will be of considerable interest to those concerned with developments in literary criticism as well as to those in the field of women's studies

Mother, She Wrote Yi-Lin Yu, 2005 In this enjoyable and insightful book Yi Lin Yu takes the heated and ongoing feminist debate over motherhood and maternal subjectivity onto a new plane in search of a new synthesis With its specific focus on the three tiered matrilineal narratives Mother She Wrote is distinguished by its complex and innovative deployment of psychoanalytic subject relations theories and a meticulous and detailed discussion of various literary texts which calls forth a powerful reformulation of these narratives One of the main strengths of this book is this simultaneous and tactful command of theory and literary practice Apart from advocating the burgeoning development of women's writing of matrilineal narratives the author also sheds new light on further research in the area of feminist motherhood and mothering Publisher's description
