

The Role of Women in Shakespeare's time.

- After marriage, women were expected to run households and give birth to children.
- High mortality rates/infant mortality rates -> Many women asked others to take care of their children
- Women were believed to be inferior to men therefore they were dominated by them.
- They were expected to obey any male member of the family. If they disobeyed -> beating. It was seen as a sin to disobey the male member of the family.
- However, Lady Macbeth classifies herself as the dominant partner in the relationship.
- Domestic service

"Come, you spirits, that tend on mortal thoughts, unsex me here, and fill me from the crown to the toe topfull, of direst cruelty"

Through the sexual nature of her speech, she tries to show more authority by becoming masculine. Contrast to women in Shakespeare's time.
