Grossberg, 2025-10-24 Exploring the backstory of contemporary political polarization What's Going On recognizes that simple stories of blame and uncontested stories of polarization prove themselves to be bad stories that produce bad politics This book argues that stories have increasingly become matters of affect rather than meaning instead of asking what stories mean we are likely to ask how they make people feel These stories are cultural tendencies that define the possibilities and limits of political action and behavior and the book tells its own story about how the stories of America's crises have defined our political culture as they struggle over questions of ideology identity and social belonging It lays out a theoretical position that recognizes the need for complicated stories and rigorous thought pointing a way forward out of the chaos seeking to repair the world and offer better stories and more humane political possibilities This work is a vital resource for students and instructors in sociology political science cultural studies media studies and communication in such courses as contemporary social theory contemporary political theory media politics and society and social movements and resistance The book will be an important guide for activists organizers and community field workers and for anyone else who wishes to have a better understanding of the contemporary political moment and how to mobilize toward building a better future The Thinking Books Susan Swan, Richard Thomas White, 1994 Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories Carl Bereiter, Valerie Anderson, 1970 Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories teaches logical thinking As each story progresses the child is asked questions that prompt him or her to determine what is wrong with what a character has done or said to anticipate what is going to happen as a result or to think of other possibilities that the character has not considered Each character has some outstanding peculiarity in his or her thinking This material is designed to teach students to recognize these peculiarities and to avoid similar errors This 205 page book contains 50 short stories and many full length color illustrations The specified instructional level is kindergarten The material seems appropriate for use with preschool students and the primary grades Teacher direction is necessary and the time required for each story varies from 5 to 30 minutes This material is part of the Thinking Skills Program and is correlated with The Thinking Book which can be purchased separately MJJ 11 75 The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1922 Everybody's, 1927 The Platoon School - National Association for the Study of the Platoon Or Work-study-play School Organization Julia A.
