Unsettling Relations:

Unsettling Relations Himani Bannerji, 1992 In a provocative collection of essays the authors examine the disjuncture between academic feminism and feminism in the academy An eminently readable hard hitting and much needed critique of the curricular pedagogical and scholarly practices that legitimate the unequal social relations in the academy Chandra Talpade Mohanty

Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Decolonizing Place in Early Childhood Education Fikile Nxumalo, 2019-05-23 This book draws attention to the urgent need for early childhood education to critically encounter and pedagogically respond to the entanglements of environmentally damaged places anti blackness and settler colonial legacies Drawing from the author s multi year participatory action research with educators and children in suburban settings the book highlights Indigenous presences and land relations within ongoing settler colonialism as necessary yet often ignored aspects of environmental education Chapters discuss topics such as geotheorizing in a capitalist society absences of Black place relations and unsettling unquestioned Western assumptions about nature education Rather than offer prescriptive solutions this book works to broaden possibilities and bolster the conversation among teachers and scholars concerned with early years environmental education

Racism in the Canadian University Frances Henry, Carol Tator, 2009-05-26 The mission statements and recruitment campaigns for modern Canadian universities promote diverse and enlightened communities Racism in the Canadian University questions this idea by examining the ways in which the institutional culture of the academy privileges Whiteness and Anglo Eurocentric ways of knowing Often denied and dismissed in practice as well as policy the various forms of racism still persist in the academy This collection informed by critical theory personal experience and empirical research scrutinizes both historical and contemporary manifestations of racism in Canadian academic institutions finding in these communities a deep rift between how racism is imagined and how it is lived With equal emphasis on scholarship and personal perspectives Racism in the Canadian University is an important look at how racial minority faculty and students continue to engage in a daily struggle for safe inclusive spaces in classrooms and among peers colleagues and administrators Feminist Review The Feminist Review Collective,2005-06-28 A unique combination of the activist and the academic Feminist Review has an acclaimed place within women s studies courses and the women s movement Feminist Review is produced by a London based editorial collective and publishes and reviews work by women featuring articles on feminist theory race class and sexuality women s history cultural studies Black and Third World feminism poetry photography letters and much more Feminist Review is available both on subscription and from bookstores For a Free Sample Copy or further subscription details please contact Trevina Johnson Routledge Subscriptions ITPS Ltd Cheriton House North Way Andover SP10 5BE UK

Advertising Myths Anne Cronin,2012-11-12 Advertising is often portrayed negatively as corrupting a mythically pure relationship between people and things In Advertising Myths Anne Cronin argues that it is better understood as a matrix of transformation that performs divisions in the social order and arranges classificatory regimes Focusing on consumption controversies Cronin contends that advertising is constituted of circuits of belief that flow between practitioners clients regulators consumers and academics Controversies such as those over tobacco and alcohol advertising she argues distil these beliefs and articulate with programmes of social engineering aimed at altering consumption patterns This book will be essential reading for students and academics of advertising and consumption Objects and Materials Penny Harvey,Eleanor Conlin Casella,Gillian Evans,Hannah Knox,Christine McLean,Elizabeth B. Silva,Nicholas Thoburn,Kath Woodward,2014-07-16 There is broad acceptance across the Humanities and Social Sciences that our deliberations on the social need to take place through attention to practice to object mediated relations to non human agency and to the affective dimensions of human sociality This Companion focuses on the objects and materials found at centre stage and asks what matters about objects Objects and Materials explores the field providing succinct summary accounts of contemporary scholarship along with a wealth of new research investigating the capacity of objects to shape unsettle and exceed expectations Original chapters from over forty international interdisciplinary contributors address an array of objects and materials to ask what the terms of collaborations with objects and materials are and to consider how these collaborations become integral to our understandings of the complex relational dynamics that fashion social worlds Objects and Materials will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities including in sociology social theory science and technology studies history anthropology archaeology gender studies women s studies geography cultural studies politics and international relations and philosophy Gender, Space and Time Dorothy Moss,2006-01-01 Drawing on the work of Henri Lefebvre and Barbara Adam Gender Space and Time is a brilliant study that offers a unique and original threefold conceptualization of how space and time is developed and applied in an empirical study of women's lives. Author Dorothy Moss focuses on the everyday practice and experience of women higher education students at a community college in northern England. Women's action is considered in relation to the complex and interconnected spheres of paid work, home, leisure, community, and higher education. Through highlighting concepts of space and time, the complex relationship between networks of power and personal action gains visibility. Moss conceptualizes women as centers of action and demonstrates the ways in which they construct personal pathways, connect different spheres of experience, integrate new time demands into the multiple rhythms of their everyday lives, and carve out personal space. Gender, Space, and Time is a timely and compelling work, certain to be of interest to scholars of sociology, women's studies, and anthropology.
