New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Human Ethology Irenaus Eibl-Eibesfeldt,2017-07-28 With the discovery of conditioned reflexes by I P Pavlov the possibilities for experimenting following the example set by the classical exact sciences were made available to the behavioral sciences Many psychologists hoped that the component parts of behavior had also been found from which the entire multifaceted cosmos of behavior could then be constructed An experimentally oriented psychology subsequently developed including the influential school of behaviorism This first text on human ethology presents itself as a unified work even though not every area could be treated with equal depth For example a branch of ethology has developed in the past decade which places particular emphasis on ecology and population genetics This field known as sociobiology has enriched discussion beyond the boundaries of behavioral biology through its stimulating and often provocative theses After vigorous debates between behaviorists anthropologists and sociologists we have entered a period of exchange of thoughts and a mutual approach which in many instances has led to cooperative projects of researchers from different disciplines This work offers a biological point of view for discussion and includes data from the author s cross cultural work and research from the staff of his institute It confirms above all else the astonishing unity of mankind and paints a basically positive picture of how we are moved by the same passions jealousies friendliness and active curiosity The need to understand ourselves has never been as great as it is today An ideologically torn humanity struggles for its survival Our species does not know how it should compensate its workers and it experiments with various economic systems constitutions and forms of government It struggles for freedom and stumbles into newer conflicts Population growth is apparently completely out of hand and at the same time many resources are being depleted We must consider our existence rati Naturbilder und Lebensgrundlagen Waltraud Ernst,2006

Subjective quality of life and social work Otger Autrata,Bringfriede Scheu,2023-03-02 Social Widerspiegelung is a central area of human life however it has been little researched for the theorization of social work Otger Autrata and Bringfriede Scheu present the foundations of social Widerspiegelung and establish the essential connection between social Widerspiegelung and subjective quality of life This makes an important contribution to the development of social work theory The basic research on social Widerspiegelung is linked to the tasks of social work in discipline and profession Structure and History in Greek Mythology and Ritual Walter Burkert,1982-11-08 Based on lectures about Greek mythology given in Berkeley in spring 1977 as part of the Sather Lectures series The thesis of these lectures is in short that even structures of the mind are determined by historical evolution in its largest sense by tradition formed and transforming within the complicated pattern of life page xii Marxism and Late Bourgeois Ideology Robert Steigerwald,1981 Eco-Geography Andreas Suchantke,2001-05 In this collection of essays John Fentress Gardner illuminates many challenging aspects of modern life that concern him and concern most of us as well From poverty and environmental degradation to sexuality parental discipline and the pressures of modern life from the further paths of knowledge to war and peace he reveals how all these faces of life speak and he points clearly to what they themselves ask for In this sense he looks directly to the future not as a prophet or even guide but as one filled with wonder and hope He looks often to Emerson to Rudolf Steiner the Austrian philosopher and seer and to others But the weight of his regard falls upon the future particularly upon the bearers of the future today s youth Gardner has been a teacher of youth for many years in the Waldorf private school system He has a deep feeling for young people not only for their masks and attitudes of the moment but also for their deep generally unconscious longings and for what happens when these are thwarted as they often are In one of the most impressive essays of this book Gardner makes it startlingly clear that peace is not a true goal or attainment if it is viewed in opposition to war and conflict For in this opposition conflict remains It is the third transcending and holding the tension between conflict and quiescent peace in which the redeeming force is found In climbing through the heart into the Heart of hearts is found the spiritual true secret of Peace There the longing to know finds answers
