The Wolf's Footprint Susan Price, 2015-05-26 An enthralling story for younger readers from double award winning author Susan Price A bad summer and the crops didn't grow Now winter is coming Everyone is hungry People search desperately for the last of the nettles and acorns Elka and her little brother Daw huddle under their blankets trying to keep warm Elka is too hungry to sleep Awake in the dark she overhears her parents whispering I don't want to watch them starve Take them into the wood and leave them Take them far in so they won't find their way back and leave them The next day their father takes them into the wood to look for mushrooms Daw goes along innocently holding his father's hand Elka follows because she doesn't want Daw to be alone The light fades Their father vanishes into the darkness among the trees He doesn't come back And then come the wolves Where do these lost children belong in the village with the people who left them to starve Or in the wood with the wolves
