Writing War:

Writing War Corinne J. Saunders, Françoise Hazel Marie Le Saux, Neil Thomas, 2004 Essays consider the variety of responses to warfare and combat in medieval literature Writing War, Writing Lives Kate McLoughlin, Lara Feigel, Nancy Martin, 2018-04-19 War affects life writing and lives affect war writing The traditional forms of life writing memoir biography letters diaries buckle under the strain of war War writing has fewer traditional forms but exists at a similar extreme The eight chapters in this book written by leading and up and coming scholars in the field illuminate the creative innovations improvisations and implosions which happen when the demands of writing war and writing lives collide Central to all is the question of authenticity how can wars and lives be known and who can speak of them with authority This volume has a generous chronological and generic range beginning in the early 1800s and stretching to 21st century texts and covering letters diaries fiction fakeries poetry biography testimony songs objects and digital media The mix of authors is similarly varied Thomas Hardy W H Auden and Elizabeth Bowen rub shoulders with Yousif M Qasmiyeh a contemporary Palestinian poet Farah Baker a Gazan teenager and the writers behind the pen names Araki Yasusada and Jiri Kajan This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice Women Writing War Katharina von Hammerstein, Barbara Kosta, Julie Shoults, 2018-08-06 Recent scholarship has broadened definitions of war and shifted from the narrow focus on battles and power struggles to include narratives of the homefront and private sphere To expand scholarship on textual representations of war means to shed light on the multiple theaters of war and on the many voices who contributed to were affected by and or critiqued German war efforts Engaged women writers and artists commented on their nations imperial and colonial ambitions and the events of the tumultuous beginning of the twentieth century In an interdisciplinary investigation this volume explores select female authored German language texts focusing on German colonial wars and World War I and the discourses that promoted or critiqued their premises They examine how colonial conflicts contributed to a persistent atmosphere of Kriegsbegeisterung war enthusiasm that eventually culminated in the outbreak of World War I or a Kriegskritik criticism of war that resisted it The span from German colonialism to World War I brings these explosive periods into relief and challenges readers to think about the intersection of nationalism violence and gender and about the historical continuities and disruptions that shape such events Writing War in the Twentieth Century Margot Norris, 2000 The twentieth century will be remembered for great innovation in two particular areas art and culture and technological advancement Much of its prodigious technical inventiveness however was pressed into service in the conduct of warfare Why asks Margot Norris did violence and suffering on such an immense scale fail to arouse artistic and cultural expressions powerful enough to prevent the recurrence of these horrors Why was art not more successful through its use of dramatic emotionally charged material its ability to stir imagination and arouse empathy and outrage in producing an alternative to the military logic that legitimates war Military argument in the twentieth century has been fortified by the authority of the rationalism that we attribute to science Norris argues Warfare is therefore legitimized by powerful discourses that art s own arsenal of styles and genres has limited power to counter Art s difficulty in representing the violent death of entire generations or populations has been particularly acute Choosing works that have become representative of their historically violent moment Norris explores not only their aesthetic strategies and perspectives but also the nature of the power they wield and the ethical engagements they enable or impede She begins by mapping the altered ethical terrain of modern technological warfare with its increasing targeting of civilian populations for destruction She then proceeds historically with chapters on the trench poetry and modernist poetry of World War I Hemingway s A Farewell to Arms and Erich Maria Remarque s All Quiet on the Western Front both the book and the film of Schindler s List the conflicting historical stories of the Manhattan Project a comparison of American and Japanese accounts of Hiroshima Francis Ford Coppola s film Apocalypse Now and the effects of press censorship in the Persian Gulf War By looking at the whole span of the century s writing on war Norris provides a fascinating critique of art s ethical power and limitations along with its participation in as well as protest against the suffering that human beings have brought upon themselves Practical
