Research Handbook on Human Rights and Poverty Martha F. Davis,Morten Kjaerum,Amanda Lyons,2021-03-26 This important Research Handbook explores the nexus between human rights poverty and inequality as a critical lens for understanding and addressing key challenges of the coming decades including the objectives set out in the Sustainable Development Goals The Research Handbook starts from the premise that poverty is not solely an issue of minimum income and explores the profound ways that deprivation and distributive inequality of power and capability relate to economic social cultural civil and political rights

Intellectual Disabilities - E-Book Helen Atherton,Debbie Crickmore,2022-03-13 This leading textbook previously known as Learning Disabilities aims to further the practice of professionals and agencies who support people with intellectual disabilities It emphasizes the strengths rather than deficits of people with intellectual disabilities highlights the crucial role of family and friends and places individuals firmly at the heart of everything that impacts them Intellectual Disabilities Toward Inclusion centres on the concepts of respecting the personhood of people with intellectual disabilities and their rights to holistic health and to live their best lives Most of the 27 chapters are co authored by respected international authors and the content has been fully updated to reflect contemporary policy legislation and service configuration This unique text will challenge and reframe typically held views and provides an international focus that recognizes we have much to learn from the experiences and perspectives of other nations around the world Comprehensive overview of the field relevant to contemporary practice Content organized around three central themes Who am I Maximizing my health Living my best life Well written and accessible Artwork and perspectives of people with intellectual disabilities bring content to life Authors from a range of professional backgrounds representing Australia Austria Germany Iceland Ireland Malta the Netherlands Norway South Africa Spain the UK and the United States Activities case studies diagrams and useful web links Additional material in an online resource complements reader activities found throughout the text

The Future of Training in Psychotherapy and Counselling John Rowan,2014-02-25 The Future of Training in Psychotherapy and Counselling presents a revealing and stimulating account of the current state of training that demonstrates how training will have to adapt if it is to successfully meet the needs and challenges of the future In an attempt to look afresh at the whole question of training John Rowan proposes that there are three ways of doing therapy and any examination of training has to consider each of these the instrumental where the main emphasis is on the treating the client or patient the authentic way where the main emphasis is on meeting the client or patient the transpersonal way where main emphasis is on linking with the client in a more personal way Each approach makes different assumptions about the self about the relationship and about the level of consciousness involved in doing therapy By challenging the basic precepts of traditional training John Rowan encourages the reader to reconsider subjects including the difference between counselling and psychotherapy culture and ethics the origins of disturbance in clients and child development The Future of Training in Psychotherapy and Counselling provides a much needed new perspective that will compel all psychotherapists and counsellors to take a closer look at training in the field
