sources of support and the groups that are or wish to be represented The approach taken by Scandinavian museums in response to this challenge highlights a very active concern for forms of cultural diversity and how they are interrelated By bringing together debates and discussions of diversity this volume offers insight into the Nordic region and its diverse peoples from the Sami and the Inuit to newer immigrants It presents a set of historical reviews on the formation of national museums and emerging and contested perceptions of national identity Furthering the general debate on representations of diversity and museums it also offers museum curators possible ways forward

Popularizing National Pasts Stefan Berger, Chris Lorenz, Billie Melman, 2012

Popularizing National Pasts is the first truly cross national and comparative study of popular national histories their representations the meanings given to them and their uses which expands outside the confines of Western Europe and the US It draws a picture of popular histories which is European in the full sense of this term One of its fortes is the inclusion of Eastern Europe The cross national angle of Popularizing National Pasts is apparent in the scope of its comparative project as well as that of the longue durée it covers Apart from essays on Britain France and Germany the collection includes studies of popular histories in Scandinavia Eastern and Southern Europe notably Romania Bulgaria Croatia Armenia Russia and the Ukraine as well as considering the US and Argentina Cross national comparison is also a central concern of the thirteen case studies in the volume which are each devoted to comparing between two or more national historical cultures Thus temporality both continuities and breaks in popular notions of the past its interpretations and consumption is examined in the long continuum The volume makes available to English readers probably for the first time the cutting edge of Eastern European scholarship on popular histories nationalism and culture
