Manifestation Wolverine Ray Young

Bear, 2015-10-27 The American Book Award winning collection from The best poet in Indian Country Sherman Alexie New York Times bestselling author of The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven Hailed by the Bloomsbury Review as the nation's foremost contemporary Native American poet and by Sherman Alexie as the best poet in Indian Country Ray Young Bear draws on ancient Meskwaki tradition and modern popular culture to create poems that provoke astound and heal This indispensable volume which contains three previously published collections Winter of the Salamander 1979 The Invisible Musician 1990 and The Rock Island Hiking Club 2001 as well as Manifestation Wolverine a brilliant series of new pieces inspired by animistic beliefs a Lazy Boy recliner and the word songs Young Bear sang to his children is a testament to the singularity of the poet's talent and the astonishing range of his voice The Title to the Poem Anne Ferry, 1996 The first six chapters are distinguished according to the nature of the question a reader might ask about the poem which the title purports to answer Who gives the title Who has the title Who says the poem Who hears the poem What genre does the poem belong to What is the poem about The Changing Face of Afro-Caribbean Cultural Identity Mamadou Badiane, 2009-12-30 The Changing Face of Afro Caribbean Cultural Identity Negrismo and Ngritude looks primarily at Negrismo and Ngritude two literary movements that appeared in the Francophone and Hispanic Caribbean as well as in Africa at the beginning of the twentieth century It draws on speeches and manifestos and use cultural studies to contextualize ideas It poses the bases of both movements in the Caribbean and in Africa and lays out the literary antecedents that influenced or shaped both movements This book examines the search for cultural identity through the poetry of Nicolas Guill n Manuel del Cabral and Pal s Matos This search is extended to the Ngritude movement through the poems of L opold Senghor L on Gontran Damas and Aim C saire Mamadou Badiane further discusses the under represented Ngritude women writers who were silenced by their male counterparts during the first half of the twentieth century Ultimately this is a book on Caribbean cultural identity that shows it in a slippery and fluctuating zone By demonstrating that while the founders of the Ngritude movement both identified themselves as descendants of Africans and were proud to proclaim their African heritage the members of the Antillanit and Cr olit movements see themselves as a product of miscegenation between different cultures How Not to Be Human Matthew Calarco, 2024-07-09 Current debates in the environmental humanities animal studies and related fields increasingly revolve around this question What to do with the human Is the human a category worth preserving Should it be replaced with the post human Should marginalized and minoritarian groups advocate for a universal humanism What is the relationship between humanism and anthropocentrism Is a genuinely non anthropocentric mode of thinking and living possible for human beings This book argues that the writings of twentieth century poet Robinson Jeffers offer twenty first century readers a number of crucial insights concerning such questions and timely advice about how not to be human For Jeffers our tendency to turn inward on ourselves and to indulge in human narcissism is at the heart of the social economic and existential ills that plague modern societies As a remedy Jeffers recommends turning ourselves outward beyond the self and beyond the human and learning to affirm and even love the inhuman cosmos in all of its terrible beauty In the process Jeffers helps us find our way back to ourselves but this time no longer as human in the traditional sense but as plain members of the inhuman world The Lost Works of William Carlos Williams Robert Cirasa,1996 In each Williams took as the basic element or constituent sections of these two large scale literary structures the tacit lyrical sequences that had constituted his originally separate volumes of verse also added new groupings as he made changes to the old and fashioned them all into a unique series of lyrical sequence a lyrical super sequence that gave unified lyrical definition and compelling lyrical immediacy to the whole of his poetic development The Collected Poetry of Nikki Giovanni American Classics Edition Nikki Giovanni,2026-05-05 From one of America s most cherished and celebrated poets a landmark collection of Nikki Giovanni s early work from the transformational years of 1968 1998 Nikki Giovanni is one of our national treasures Gloria Naylor In celebration of the 250th anniversary of the United States HarperCollins is proud to present this library of American classics drawn from our storied catalog This timeless classic brings readers Nikki Giovanni s poems from her books Black Feeling Black Talk Black Judgement Re Creation My House The Women and the Men Cotton Candy on a Rainy Day and Those Who Ride the Night Winds When Nikki Giovanni s poems first emerged during the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s she immediately took a place among the most celebrated and controversial artists of our time More than 50 years later Giovanni still stands as one of the most commanding luminous voices to grace America s political and poetic landscape Stirring provocative and resonant these poems heralded the arrival of an indelible literary voice that resounds to this day Stories in Stone David B. Williams,2019-08-19 Most people do not think to observe geology from the sidewalks of a major city but all David B Williams has to do is look at building stone in any urban center to find a range of rocks equal to any assembled by plate tectonics In Stories in Stone he takes you on explorations to find 3 5 billion year old rock that looks like swirled pink and black taffy a gas station made of petrified wood and a Florida fort that has withstood three hundred years of attacks and hurricanes despite being made of a stone that has the consistency of a granola bar Williams also weaves in the cultural history of stone explaining why a white fossil rich limestone from Indiana became the only building stone used in all fifty states how in 1825 the construction of the Bunker Hill Monument led to America s first commercial railroad and why when the same kind of marble used by Michelangelo clad a Chicago skyscraper it warped so much after nineteen years that all 44 000 panels of it had to be replaced This love letter to building stone brings to life the geology you can see in the structures of every city
