Unarmed Insurrections:

Unarmed Insurrections Kurt Schock, In the last two decades of the twentieth century a wave of people power movements erupted throughout the nondemocratic world In South Africa the Philippines Nepal Thailand Burma Myanmar China and elsewhere mass protest demonstrations strikes boycotts civil disobedience and other nonviolent actions were brought to bear on a rigid political status quo Kurt Schock compares the successes of the antiapartheid movement in South Africa the people power movement in the Philippines the pro democracy movement in Nepal and the antimilitary movement in Thailand with the failures of the pro democracy movement in China and the anti regime challenge in Burma Schock develops a synthetic framework that allows him to identify which characteristics increase the resilience of a challenge to state repression and which aspects of a state s relations can be exploited by such a challenge By looking at how these methods of protest promoted regime change in some countries but not in others this book provides rare insight into the often overlooked and little understood power of nonviolent action

On the Arab Revolts and the Iranian Revolution Arshin Adib-Moghaddam,2013-10-10 On the Arab Revolts and the Iranian Revolution Power and Resistance Today is the first comparative analysis of two central political events that have altered our world forever the Arab uprisings which started in Tunisia and the Iranian revolution in 1979 Adib Moghaddam demonstrates how contemporary forms of protest are changing our understanding about the way power and resistance function In a theoretical tour de force which is substantiated with a range of primary material he argues that acts of protest in Tehran to Cairo can be entirely linked to the same act in New York London Madrid and Athens Breaking through the east west north south divide Adib Moghaddam shows how the Arab revolts promise to shift the discourse away from the idea that Arabs and Muslims are peculiar that Middle Eastern Studies cannot be linked to political theory that the dynamics of rebellion there are fundamentally different from the politics of revolt here Adib Moghaddam argues that the dialectics of power and resistance are truly universal and that they are unfolding within a globalised political context that is increasingly interconnected In order to illuminate this argument theoretically the study is organised around conceptual terms that feed into forms of power and resistance such as revolution radicalism dissent knowledge neighbour and reform These terms and concepts are discussed and deconstructed via an empirical discussion of pivotal events beyond the non western world demonstrating that for a long time and without realising it we have been living in the end times of unitary categories such as west and east iPresente! Kyle B.T. Lambelet,2020-02-03 Presente develops a lived theology of nonviolence through an extended case study of the movement to close the School of the Americas also known as the SOA or WHINSEC Specifically it analyzes how the presence of the dead a presence proclaimed at the annual vigil of the School of the Americas Watch shapes a distinctive transnational nonviolent movement Kyle B T Lambelet argues that such a messianic affirmation need not devolve into violence or sectarianism and in fact generates practical reasoning By developing a messianic political theology in dialogue with the SOA Watch movement Lambelet s work contributes to

Christian ethics as he explores the political implications of the resurrection of the dead This book contributes to studies of strategic nonviolence and civil resistance by demonstrating how religious and moral dynamics remain an essential part of such struggles

Popular Protest in China Kevin J. O'Brien,2008-11-21 Unrest in China from the dramatic events of 1989 to more recent stirrings offers a rare opportunity to consider how popular contention unfolds in places where speech and assembly are tightly controlled The contributors to this volume argue that ideas inspired by social movements elsewhere can help explain popular protest in China

Gandhi and Beyond David Cortright,2015-12-03 Is there room for nonviolence in a time of conflict and mass violence exacerbated by economic crisis Drawing on the legend and lessons of Gandhi Cortright traces the history of nonviolent social activism through the twentieth century to the civil rights movement the Vietnam era and up to the wars in Iraq Afghanistan and Gaza Gandhi and Beyond offers a critical evaluation and refinement of Gandhi's message laying the foundation for a renewed and deepened dedication to nonviolence as the universal path to social progress In the second edition of this popular book a new prologue and concluding chapter situate the message of nonviolence in recent events and document the effectiveness of nonviolent methods of political change Cortright's poignant Letter to a Palestinian Student points toward a radical new strategy for achieving justice and peace in the Middle East This book offers pathways of hope not only for a new American presidential administration but for the world

Rethinking Violence Erica Chenoweth,Adria Lawrence,2010-08-27 An original argument about the causes and consequences of political violence and the range of strategies employed States nationalist movements and ethnic groups in conflict with one another often face a choice between violent and nonviolent strategies Although major wars between sovereign states have become rare contemporary world politics has been rife with internal conflict ethnic cleansing and violence against civilians This book asks how why and when states and non state actors use violence against one another and examines the effectiveness of various forms of political violence In the process of addressing these issues the essays make two conceptual moves that illustrate the need to reconsider the way violence by states and non state actors has typically been studied and understood The first is to think of violence not as dichotomous as either present or absent but to consider the wide range of nonviolent and violent options available and ask why actors come to embrace particular strategies The second is to explore the dynamic nature of violent conflicts developing explanations that can account for the eruption of violence at particular moments in time The arguments focus on how changes in the balance of power between and among states and non state actors generate uncertainty and threat thereby creating an environment conducive to violence This innovative way of understanding violence deemphasizes the role of ethnic cleavages and nationalism in modern conflict Contributors Kristin M Bakke Emily Beaulieu H Zeynep Bulutgil Erica Chenoweth Kathryn McNabb Cochran Kathleen Gallagher Cunningham Alexander B Downes Erin K Jenne Adria Lawrence Harris Mylonas Wendy Pearlman Maria J Stephan
