Eric Hoffer,1964      3 Plays of Our Time Shango Baku,1984      Travel Notes and Way Stations - A Rational Ethic, Vol I Traumear,2018-03-03 We moderns are reluctant to accept that a truly creative motivation affectively underlies our various deplorable aggressions and depressions This sums up our tragic predicament It is as if a special dispensation were required before we understand reality as not based on appearances but on faith and good spirit In the presence of those who do understand we are more likely to catch on because our depression and aggression rubs off on them and infects them whereupon they deal with this rationally within themselves before dealing with us then mercifully Their ethical behaviour by personal example and good works instils in us a desire for moral integrity and ethical power We gain a sense of a taste for the satisfaction from doing good We become capable of sustaining that extra dimension to our being which corresponds to the foundation of reality If we choose we can allow our thought processes to be schooled as we read this work so that we may be cleansed of the modern evil that is criticism      In the Hollow of His Hand Ralph Waldo Trine,2007-04-01 Organized Christianity many of its principles and doctrines formulated by pre medieval minds on pre medieval knowledge is not suitable for the modern world claims Ralph Waldo Trine And so he argues in this 1915 work men and women are freeing themselves from the shackles of the Church with its emphasis on fear and negativity and looking for something more positive something that has real value and can help them cope with the struggles and trials of everyday life In In the Hollow of His Hand Trine one of the most influential thinkers in the early New Age philosopher of New Thought explains just how the Church got to be that way and offers a guide for the reader looking for a more personal relationship with God American mystic and bestselling author RALPH WALDO TRINE 1866 1958 wrote more than a dozen books including The Higher Powers of Mind and Spirit
