Ten Men Dead

Robert White

Ten Men Dead:

Ten Men Dead David Beresford, 1997 In 1981 ten men starved themselves to death inside the walls of Long Kesh prison in Belfast While a stunned world watched and distraught family members kept bedside vigils one soldier after another slowly went to his death in an attempt to make Margaret Thatcher's government recognize them as political prisoners rather than common criminals Drawing extensively on secret IRA documents and letters from the prisoners smuggled out at the time David Beresford tells the gripping story of these strikers and their devotion to the cause An intensely human story Ten Men Dead offers a searing portrait of strife torn Ireland of the IRA and the passions on both sides that Republicanism arouses

Out of the Ashes Robert White, 2017-04-25 Out of the Ashes is the definitive history of the Provisional Irish Republican movement from its formation at the outset of the modern Troubles up to and after its official disarmament in 2005 Robert White a prolific observer of IRA and Sinn Féin activities has amassed an incomparable body of interview material from leading members over a thirty year period In this defining study the interviewees provide extraordinary insights into the complex motivations that provoked their support for armed struggle their eventual reform and the mind set of today's dissidents who refuse to lay down their arms Those interviewed stem from every stage of the Provisionals history from founding figures such as Seán Mac Stíofáin Ruairí Ó Brádaigh and Joe Cahill to the new generation that replaced them Martin McGuinness Danny Morrison and Brendan Hughes among others Out of the Ashes is a pioneering history that breaks new ground in defining how the Provisionals operated caused worldwide condemnation and were transformed by constitutional politics

Westerns suddenly appearing on Irish television which were not that far from his own experience given that Ireland's main export was beef and it was still not unknown for herds of cattle to clatter down Dublin's streets Yet the Westerns were a sign of what was to come O Toole narrates the once unthinkable collapse of the all powerful Catholic Church brought down by scandal and by the activism of ordinary Irish women in particular He relates the horrific violence of the Troubles in Northern Ireland which led most Irish to reject violent nationalism In O Toole's telling America became a lodestar from John F Kennedy's 1963 visit when the soon to be martyred American president was welcomed as a native son to the emergence of the Irish technology sector in the late 1990s driven by American corporations which set Ireland on the path toward particular disaster during the 2008 financial crisis A remarkably compassionate yet exacting observer O Toole in coruscating prose captures the peculiar Irish habit of deliberate unknowing which allowed myths of national greatness to persist even as the foundations were crumbling Forty years in the making We Don't Know Ourselves is a landmark work a memoir and a national history that ultimately reveals how the two modes are entwined for all of us
