The Circle of Karma Kunzang Choden, 2005 Caught in the everyday reality of household life fifteen year old Tsomo is suddenly called upon to travel when her mother dies She makes her first journey to a faraway village to light the ritual butter lamps in her mother s memory Beginning here her travels take her to distant places across Bhutan and into India As she faces the world a woman alone Tsomo embarks on what becomes a life journey in which she begins to find herself and to grow as a person and a woman The first novel by a woman to come out of the Himalayan kingdom of Bhutan The Circle of Karma written in English is rich in detailed descriptions of ritual life in Bhutan The measured pace of its prose the many nuances of the story the different levels at which the narrative works weave a complex tapestry of life in which the style and content are closely interwoven each informing and enriching the other

The Circle of Fire P.J. Mazumdar, 2009-11-30 The Circle of Fire examines the eternal metaphysical questions What is God and What is the purpose of life The book discusses the answers to these questions given by Western science and different schools of Indian thought specifically detailing the answers to be found in India s two most developed atheistic traditions Hinduism and Buddhism Representative of a generation of Indians who have grown up with the best in scientific education and spiritual values author P J Mazumdar takes a hard look at religion science and how two seemingly divergent bodies of knowledge can be brought together Like Deepak Chopra a generation earlier Mazumdar is both a medical doctor and a member of a family steeped in Hindu tradition and is therefore well placed to elucidate ancient Indian philosophy to the modern analytical mind Acknowledging the metaphysical insights to be found in both Western science and Eastern spirituality Mazumdar pays special attention to the highest school of philosophy of Hinduism Advaita and its application to practical spirituality through the teachings and practice of Yoga The book takes its structure from the Vedas and is similarly divided into Jnanakanda Knowledge and Karmakanda Actions the first part examines the body of knowledge from European and Indian sources addressing the question of God and the second part looks at practical ways of applying this knowledge through different schools of Hindu and Buddhist philosophy The book explores the purest form of nondual Hindu philosophy Advaita and points out how the theories underpinning Buddhism and Advaita although they appear to contradict each other are the only theories that remain consistent with the findings of modern science The author makes the brave assertion that ultimately one or the other will be the theory realized by science as the ultimate metaphysical truth Like other books on the meeting of science and spirituality Fritzjof Capra s 80s classic The Tao of Physics and the necessity of a scientifically compatible notion of God Richard Dawkin s The God Delusion The Circle of Fire is ambitious in scope and a challenging rewarding read
