The End of The Modern World Romano Guardini,2024-02-13 Two monumental works on the nature of the modern age by Romano Guardini one of the most important Catholic figures of the 20th century This expanded edition of The End of the Modern World A Search for Orientation includes its sequel Power and Responsibility A Course of Action for the New Age In both Guardini analyzes modern man s conception of himself in the world and examines the nature and use of power It is the principle of individual responsibility that weaves both works into a seamless comprehensive and compelling moral statement Guardini tirelessly argues that human beings are responsible moral agents possessed of free will and answerable to God and their fellow man On The End of the Modern World This book will cauterize the spirit of any man who reads it it will burn away that sentimentality with which so many today view the advent of the new order imagining as they do that a fully technologized universe can retain every significant cultural and traditional value sustained by the past Frederick D Wilhelmsen founding editor of Triumph magazine and professor at the University of Dallas On Power and Responsibility If the characteristic of Hellenic civilization is to be summed up in the word logos the characteristic of our own is more exactly summed up in the word power The fact itself is a challenge to the wisdom of man One is grateful that Romano Guardini has taken up the challenge I highly recommend the book to all who are wise enough to know today s need to wisdom That is I recommend the book to every thoughtful mind John Courtney Murray S J architect of the Vatican II Declaration on Religious Liberty and author of We Hold These Truths

The Geschlecht Complex Oscar Jansson,David LaRocca,2022-01-13 The polysemous German word Geschlecht denoting gender genre kind kinship species race and somehow also more exemplifies the most pertinent questions of the translational transdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational structures of the contemporary humanities What happens when texts objects practices and concepts are transferred or displaced from one language tradition temporality or form to another What is readily transposed what resists relocation and what precipitate emerges as distorted or new Drawing on Barbara Cassin s transformative remarks on untranslatability and the activity of philosophizing in languages scholars contributing to The Geschlecht Complex examine these and other durable queries concerning the ontological powers of naming and do so in the light of recent artistic practices theoretical innovations and philosophical incitements Combining detailed case studies of concrete category problems in literature philosophy media cinema politics painting theatre and the performing arts with a range of indispensable excerpts from canonical texts by notable field defining thinkers such as Apter Cassin Cavell Derrida Irigaray Malabou and Nancy among others the volume presents the Geschlecht complex as a condition to become aware of and in turn to companionably underwrite any interpretive endeavor Historically grounded yet attuned to the particularities of the present the Geschlecht complex becomes an invaluable mode for thinking and theorizing while ensconced in the urgent immediacy of pressing concerns and poised for the inevitable complexities of categorial naming and genre discernment that await in the so often inscrutable translation resistant twenty first century
