Toward Responsible Innovation: Responsibility And Philosophy For A Humanely Sustainable Future Xavier

Pavie, 2021-11-08 For fifty years innovations have taken on a new dimension the Internet DNA sequencing genomic manipulations advances in transhumanism nanotechnologies and much more These recent innovations are not without addressing new issues whose consequences are as important as irreversible The innovator of whom Steve Jobs and Mark Zuckerberg are emblematic contemporary figures appears as a personality as brilliant as he is destructive who aspires to change the world regardless of the violence that may ensue With this then emerges the need to establish responsible innovation in which the innovator should be accountable for his actions and review his position as a hero To establish this new ethic philosophy is a necessary recourse since it questions among other things the self control of the Stoics the prudence of Aristotle respect of Kant the will power of Nietzsche and the power of Foucault Planting Missional Churches Ed Stetzer, 2006 An instruction book for planting biblically faithful and culturally relevant churches this text address the how to and why issues of church planting by providing practical guidance through all the phases while taking a missional look at existing and emerging cultures The Four Responsibilities of a Disciple Darren Huckey, 2013-10-10 The Four Responsibilities of a Disciple addresses the question What will it take to change the world for our Master After many years of searching my answer is that it has to start with you and me Too many times we want to go out and change the world and start off by trying to fix everyone else But the path to permanent lasting sustainable change has to begin with ourselves Yes we should be working to change the world but it must begin with ourselves In order to make disciples as our Master tells us in The Great Commission we first have to become disciples ourselves Jesus said A disciple when he is fully trained will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 One of the largest obstacles to discipleship is that too many people think of it as being an optional component of faith We tend to relegate discipleship to the clergy or to someone with a special mission The fact is however that if we call ourselves by the name of Jesus we should be a disciple ourselves and should be making disciples of others It s just part of the package It isn t some special elite group of people who are the special forces of our faith No It s you and me Together We are both following the same commission given by our Master Whoever you are and wherever your station in life you are called to be a disciple The Four Responsibilities of a Disciple gives the basics for starting on your path to becoming a true disciple of Jesus It addresses four over arching areas of responsibility with which every follower of Jesus should be familiar and practicing Why not start today in becoming a better disciple of the your Messiah Feasting on the Gospels--Luke, Volume 1 Cynthia A.
