Saskia Wieringa, 1995-09-04 This important anthology of feminist writing brilliantly demonstrates the complexity and diversity of women's movements and organisations worldwide. The book opens with an analysis of women's history as subversion and the methodological aspects of feminist research projects. Individual contributors look at the experience of their own countries and explore feminism as it is defined in the North and the South. Throughout the book gives a distinct historical perspective on women's organising. It shows how women have always subverted the codes determining the spaces in which they move, extending the boundaries of their social space and empowering themselves as well as confronting existing power structures. Helpmates, Harlots, and Heroes Alice Ogden Bellis, In this comprehensive book the first of its kind the author shares the work of many feminist biblical scholars who have examined women's stories in the last twenty five years. These stories are powerful accounts of women in the Old Testament stories that have profoundly affected how women understand themselves. Publisher description Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru Pascha Bueno-Hansen, 2015-07-30 In 2001 following a generation of armed conflict and authoritarian rule the Peruvian state created a Truth and Reconciliation Committee (TRC). Pascha Bueno Hansen places the TRC, feminist and human rights movements and related non-governmental organizations within an international and historical context to expose the difficulties in addressing gender-based violence. Her innovative theoretical and methodological framework based on decolonial feminism and a critical engagement with intersectionality facilitates an in-depth examination of the Peruvian transitional justice process based on field studies and archival research. Bueno Hansen uncovers the colonial mappings and linear temporality underlying transitional justice efforts and illustrates why transitional justice mechanisms must reckon with the societal roots of atrocities if they are to result in true and lasting social transformation. Original and bold Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru elucidates the tension between the promise of transitional justice and persistent inequality and impunity.

Women's Authorship in Interwar Yugoslavia Jelena Petrović, 2018-10-01 This book highlights the extent to which women were positioned as historical subjects in the process of constructing political, social and cultural history in Yugoslavia while simultaneously facing the politics of institutional exclusion and academic ignorance of progressive ideas and emancipatory struggles. To this effect the book interprets a series of works written in interwar Yugoslavia by women or about women's position in public space. The research corpus is varied including LGBT literature, autobiographies, travelogues, literary correspondence, political writings, parody, bibliographies and dictionaries etc. The book argues that women have been programmatically made absent from the so called universal canon of post Yugoslav literature or else negatively valorised or labeled while at the same time women s writing in interwar Yugoslavia reflected articulated and mapped significant social political and cultural issues The book proposes a re reading of the once censored and forgotten texts to counter the politics of exclusion that operates even today in the post Yugoslav space This re reading is carried out in the light of contemporary feminist theories and aims to reveal and emphasise the emancipatory importance of women s authorship In this way Jelena Petrovi provides a fresh perspective on the topical issue of the still contested post Yugoslav space

Critical Perspectives on Indo-Caribbean Women's Literature Joy Allison Indira Mahabir, Mariam Pirbhai, 2013 This book is the first collection on Indo Caribbean women s writing and the first work to offer a sustained analysis of the literature from a range of theoretical and critical perspectives such as ecocriticism feminist queer post colonial and Caribbean cultural theories The essays not only lay the framework of an emerging and growing field but also critically situate internationally acclaimed writers such as Shani Mootoo Lakshmi Persaud and Ramabai Espinet within this emerging tradition Indo Caribbean women writers provide a fresh new perspective in Caribbean literature be it in their unique representations of plantation history anti colonial movements diasporic identities feminisms ethnicity and race or contemporary Caribbean societies and culture The book offers a theoretical reading of the poetics politics and cultural traditions that inform Indo Caribbean women s writing arguing that while women writers work with and through postcolonial and Caribbean cultural theories they also respond to a distinctive set of influences and realities specific to their positioning within the Indo Caribbean community and the wider national regional and global imaginary Contributors visit the overlap between national and transnational engagements in Indo Caribbean women s literature considering the writers response to local or nationally specific contexts and the writers response to the diasporic and transnational modalities of Caribbean and Indo Caribbean communities

A State of Ambivalence Lenore Lyons, 2004-01-01 This book examines the contemporary feminist movement in Singapore It provides a fascinating analysis of the meanings that Singaporean women attach to the label feminist as well as the ways in which feminist activists negotiate their complex relationship with the Singaporean state

The Restoration Mind Gerald W. Marshall, 1997-12 Through the inclusion of essays by leading Restoration scholars from around the world this book attempts to fulfill a much needed function for serious students of the period and uses a culture based approach to offer a general theory regarding the Restoration mentality The editor W Gerald Marshall addresses the serious lack of an interdisciplinary culture based study of this important era

Subversive Women in Mexico's New Historical Novel Angelica Maria Lozano-Alonso, 2001 Victorian Sensation Fiction Jessica Cox, 2019-04-25 Since the establishment of sensation fiction in the 1860s key trends have emerged in critical readings of these texts From Victorian responses emphasising the lowbrow or potentially dangerous qualities of the genre to the prolific critical attention of the present day this Reader s Guide identifies the dominant approaches to sensation fiction and charts the critical trends of various scholarly evaluations and interpretations With coverage spanning empire class sexuality and adaptation this is the ideal companion for students of Victorian Literature looking for an introduction to the key debates surrounding sensation fiction Women's Matters Nina S. Levine,1998 In using feminist political analysis to open up the complexities of these early plays Levine also demonstrates the value of reconsidering works that have long been marginalized in Shakespeare studies Women in Contemporary Democratization Shahra Razavi,United Nations Research Institute for Social Development,2000 This paper looks at the issue of democratization from a gender perspective While many of the problems afflicting the new democracies such as the elitist character of political parties and the failure of the state to guarantee civil and political rights or make a significant dent in poverty affect all citizens they are manifested and experienced in gender specific ways Women s persistent exclusion from formal politics in particular raises a number of specific questions about how to reform democratic institutions since these institutions are not automatically gender equitable Privacy, Domesticity, and Women in Early Modern England Corinne S. Abate,2003 The essays that comprise this collection explore how private and domestic and predominantly female spaces were imagined and employed in the early modern period so as to produce and reproduce culture The Urologic and Cutaneous Review ,1927 Kansas and the West Rita Napier,2003 By incorporating voices from history that have too long been lost in the din of tradition especially the voices of Native Americans and blacks women and laborers Kansas and the West provides a provocative and much needed new view of the state s past Women in Asia Barbara N. Ramusack,Sharon L. Sievers,1999 Barbara N Ramusack surveys the prescriptive roles and lived experiences of women from the period of the early states to the 1990s Proceedings ... Annual Convention, Department of Kansas, American Legion Auxiliary American Legion. Auxiliary. Dept. of Kansas,1925 Sharpened Edge Stephanie Athey,2003-12-30 This collection of essays examines the relationship of women of color s armed resistance to their aesthetic struggles tension and transformation in feminist practice and the impact of the gender based design of state sponsored terror human rights debates and the economic development for women of color Athey brings together new scholarship testing the possibility of transnational feminist action and theorizing historical and contemporary aspects of resistance for women of color Included are essays by and about women of Africa India and the Americas including women of African American Chicana Puerto Rican and Yaqui origins Essays examine regional and historical contexts to demonstrate the central role of women of color in armed resistance struggle and in sustaining cultures of resistance despite the fact that the agency speech and writing of women of color have received the least attention in studies of resistance Contributors challenge thinking across many disciplines sociology literary and cultural studies history political science and education Resistance struggles examined include women in armed struggle for national self determination political and economic struggle for human rights and against state sponsored repression and women sustaining political and cultural resistance against specific religious feminist or nationalist doctrines and against the repression of multiple forms of political sexual intellectual and artistic expression
