

SUCCESSFUL FAMILIES

POWER IN THE LOVE OF FAMILY

When you take a family photograph, it hardly ever seems to come out perfectly. There are always flaws. But that's just the way families are. As humans, we fail to measure up to the ideal in many ways.

However, God has given us a picture of His ideal family, one that goes far beyond outward appearances, and even reflects His special relationship to His people. The human family even serves as a picture of God Himself. So it's important to look at your family from God's perspective to discover the best He has in mind for you.

THE FAMILY: THE IMAGE OF GOD

A family begins with a man and a woman, each created in God's image (Genesis 1:27). This means that, spiritually, God must have both male and female characteristics. For example, God has fatherly characteristics. He gives us good gifts, as an earthly father would (Luke 11:11-13). He also has motherly characteristics. He comforts us as a mother comforts her child (Isaiah 66:13).

But a family consists of more than just a mother and father. There are children too. God's first commandment to Adam and Eve was to be fruitful and multiply (Genesis 1:28). Man was to share in the creative act of bringing children into the world.

The family, in other words, is there to show people what our heavenly family will be like. A family is an example to believers and unbelievers alike of the love and acceptance we have from God.

A FAMILY MEANS LOVE

A family should be a place where you can go, no matter what you've done wrong, and still be loved. The prodigal son left his home, squandering all his riches. Yet, when everyone else had turned away from him, his father still welcomed him home with open, loving arms (Luke 15:11-24). This is an example of the everlasting love of God (Jeremiah 31:3).

But love means more than acceptance, more than affection—it means discipline. The book of Hebrews tells us that God chastens, or disciplines, those He loves (Hebrews 12:6). In the same way, love is something that needs to be expressed verbally. God often tells us in His Word that He loves us: God so loved the world (John 3:16) and He first loved us (1 John 4:19). If God didn't tell us He loved us, we wouldn't know.

But words alone are not enough. God demonstrated His love by Christ's dying on the cross for us. To really show our families that we love them, we need to die to our own selfish desires and put them before ourselves—as Jesus put us before Himself on the cross.

ENDURING LOVE

Remember what it was like when you first fell in love? Gazing endlessly into one another's eyes, holding hands under the stars—yet often the romance gets lost as married bliss becomes a monotonous repetition of the humdrum of daily existence.

But it is our commitment which makes love endure. The world likes to tell you that the wonderful feelings are most important, but God talks of commitment.

In today's world, we are besieged with all kinds of pressures that can produce family conflicts. The world encourages divorce and separation rather than resolution of conflict. Satan is working harder than ever to destroy our families through these conflicts. Yet the Bible promises us that we can submit therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you (James 4:7).
