The Border Trumpet Ernest Haycox, 2019-01-13 LOVE AND ADVENTURE ON THE FRONTIER This is a story of some of the soldiers who won the West through bitter battles against the Indians, paying for the expansion of a continent with their blood: the story of their life in battle and between battles. It is the story too of Eleanor Warren, to whom the frontier post with all its hardships had always been home. When she rejoined her father's regiment at its newest frontier in Arizona, she found Phil Castleton, whom she had loved for three years, waiting for her. And she found too a new member of the regiment, Tom Benteen, who strangely attracted her. It was when the rigors of battle revealed the difference between Phil and Tom that she was faced with the difficult decision that was to determine her life.
