The Challenge Of Popular Religiosity:

The Challenge of Popular Religiosity Segundo Galilea, 1988 Our Lady of Guadalupe Jeanette Rodriguez, 1994 Our Lady of Guadalupe is the most important religious symbol of Mexico and one of the most powerful female icons of Mexican culture In this study based on research done among second generation Mexican American women Rodriguez examines the role the symbol of Guadalupe has played in the development of these women She goes beyond the thematic and religious implications of the symbol to delve into its relevance to their daily lives Rodriguez s study offers an important reinterpretation of one of the New World s most potent symbols Her conclusions dispute the common perception that Guadalupe is a model of servility and suffering Rather she reinterprets the symbol of Guadalupe as a liberating and empowering catalyst for Mexican American women Participation and Beliefs in Popular Religiosity Francesco Zaccaria, 2009-12-16 Many academic disciplines have contributed to the study of popular religiosity but the definition of this phenomenon and of its relation with official religion still remains a problematic topic This book offers an empirical theological investigation of popular religiosity by exploring among Italian Catholics the relation between popular religious participation processions pilgrimages vows et cetera and religious beliefs The investigated beliefs are beliefs about God about human suffering in relation to God about Jesus Christ and about the church The results indicate that popular religious participation influences some of these beliefs This study contributes to an empirically based picture of a complementary relation between popular religiosity and official religion within the Catholic Church in Italy La Vida Sacra James Empeur, Eduardo Fernández, 2006-10-12 La Vida Sacra Contemporary Hispanic Sacramental Theology is an original insightful approach to the sacraments from the perspective and actual practice of Latinos over the centuries It offers a distinctive take on the actual belief and enculturation of the sacraments in the Latino experience and context Due to the growing presence of Hispanics in this country churches are looking for new and innovative ways to fit them into their congregations The existence of Hispanics and more importantly the value of their religious experiences are being gradually accepted in theological societies Eduardo Fern ndez and James Empeur s new book fills the need for a more comprehensive and richer context for sacramental theology As the newest book in the Celebrating Faith Series it is ideal for theology courses as well as directors of ministerial programs and their students who are looking to place Hispanic sacramentality in the larger framework of sacramental theology The "Axial Age" and the Invention of a Shared Future La Civiltà Cattolica, 2022-02-08 A collection of 13 articles from the October 2021 edition of La Civiltà Cattolica the highly respected and oldest Catholic journal published from Rome Our October issue has the latest in our popular series of articles on Pope Francis meetings with local Jesuits during his travels From Myanmar and Thailand to Japan to Peru and Panama the pope takes time to meet his brother Jesuits The latest meeting was in Bratislava Slovakia Along with an account of the meeting our editor in chief Antonio Spadaro has penned another of the journey to Hungary and Slovakia We have two articles on

Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 9 (2018) Solange Lefebvre, Alfonso Pérèz-Agote Poveda, 2018-09-11 Catholicism is generally over institutionalized and over centralized in comparison to other religions However it finds itself in an increasingly interrelated and globalized world and is therefore immersed in a great plurality of social realities The Changing Faces of Catholicism assembles an international cast of contributors to explore the consequent decline of powerful Catholic organisations as well as to address the responses and resistance efforts that specific countries have taken to counteract the secularization crisis in both Europe and the Americas It reveals some of the strategies of the Catholic Church as a whole and of the Vatican centre in particular to address problems of the global era through the dissemination of spiritually progressive writing World Youth Days and the transformation of Catholic education to become a forum for intercultural and interreligious dialogue The volume also reflects on the adaptation of Catholic institutions and missions as sponsored by religious communities and monastic orders
