The Chartist Movement Mark Hovell, 1918 English Historical Documents, 1833-1874 David Charles Douglas, George Malcolm Young, W. D. Handcock, 1996 English Historical Documents is the most comprehensive annotated collection of documents on British not in reality just English history ever compiled Conceived during the Second World War with a view to ensuring the most important historical documents remained available and accessible in perpetuity the first volume came out in 1953 and the most recent volume almost sixty years later The print series edited by David C Douglas is a magisterial survey of British history covering the years 500 to 1914 and including around 5 500 primary sources all selected by leading historians Editors It has over the years become an indispensable resource for generations of students researchers and lecturers EHD is now available in its entirety online Bringing EHD into the digital age has been a long and complex process To provide you with first rate intelligent searchability Routledge have teamed up with the Institute of Historical Research one of the research institutes that make up the School of Advanced Study University of London <http://www.history.ac.uk> to produce EHD Online The IHR's team of experts have fully indexed the documents using an exhaustive historical thesaurus developed by the Royal Historical Society for its Bibliography of British and Irish History The sources include treaties statutes declarations government and cabinet proceedings military dispatches orders acts sermons newspaper articles pamphlets personal and official letters diaries and more Each section of documents and many of the documents themselves are accompanied by editorial commentary The sources cover a wide spectrum of topics from political and constitutional issues to social economic religious as well as cultural history

R sum de l diteur English Historical Documents W.D. Handcock, 2024-11-01 English Historical Documents is the most ambitious impressive and comprehensive collection of documents on English history ever published An authoritative work of primary evidence each volume presents material with exemplary scholarly accuracy Editorial comment is directed towards making sources intelligible rather than drawing conclusions from them Full account has been taken of modern textual criticism A general introduction to each volume portrays the character of the period under review and critical bibliographies have been added to assist further investigation Documents collected include treaties personal letters statutes military dispatches diaries declarations newspaper articles government and cabinet proceedings orders acts sermons pamphlets agricultural instructions charters grants guild regulations and voting records Volumes are furnished with lavish extra apparatus including genealogical tables lists of officials chronologies diagrams graphs and maps
