The Chinago Jack London,1911 The Chinago Jack London,2016-09-09 Excerpt from The Chinago And Other Stories
Ah Cho had done nothing of which to be afraid He had had no hand in the killing It was true he had been present at it and Schemmer the overseer on the plantation had rushed into the barracks immediately afterward and caught him there along with four or five others but what of that Chung Ga had been stabbed only twice It stood to reason that five or six men could not in fact stab two wounds At the most if a man had struck but once only two men could have done it About the Publisher
