They Shine They Fly Theyre Angels:

Moral and Religious Quotations from the Poets ,1861 The Creator's Warriors Luis Herrera,2018-03-11 The Creator is a story born of imagination In my eternal journey through these lands I learned what it is to enjoy laugh suffer and cry I had joys and ventures I also saw the enjoyment and suffering of half the world moreover I have seen the suffering of many thousands and the enjoy of few looking at the sky I asked many questions but never find an answer taking my own initiative I intend to witness the beginning of the Apocalypse I intend to contribute to this event With little knowledge of religious events drag characters that marked milestones in the biblical story put them on the way to save the world where we live a world called land to which a man named Pedro wants to call paradise The man called Pedro has a second chance in his life in his impotence of facing so much abuse he tries to mediate with the creator he also asks many questions to this one who only responds so I do things nobody can reproach me non mortal dare to disobey so would his design so he did and so it will be forever because that is his law Peter does not agree you are wrong you seem to hate your subjects you make a good soul suffer and you give pleasure to the perverse soul he continues saying your believers are losing faith in you they are losing faith in the creator That seems to matter little to the creator who only strives to punish the one who dares to challenge his will The man named Pedro ignoring the creator s request launches himself towards the earth his task ridding it of evil he will not be alone a lot of Angels go with him As the creator can not avoid his decision he covers them with his grace he asks not to commit the same error of the fallen angels he asks that they teach to love their neighbor but that is not the intention of Pedro he will be more severe in his desire to make the earth a paradise The Peep of Day, Or, A Series of the Earliest
