innocent people Like the time he ordered his priests to melt down their golden chalices and other implements of idol worship to build an orphanage to the times he had been caught baptizing born out of wedlock children to the times he had been caught officiating at funerals of the remarried to the times he ordered hospitals to admit partners of homosexuals into intensive care units to the time he defended their right to parent children to the times he had been caught giving the Eucharist to communists to the times he defied the ban on contraception to his courageous defense of the first artificially inseminated child just a month before his election to the time as a pope he declared God is the Father More so the Mother On the afternoon of March 13 1978 fourteen men sat around a table in a sidewalk caf in a mountain village in northern Italy In casual clothes they went unnoticed though one was the reigning Pontiff and another the leader of the Russian Orthodox Church Included were Italian cardinals and statesmen who had been behind the rise of the Communist Party in Italy The others were cardinals of impoverished parts of the world Together they comprised the leadership of the Marxist movement in the western world They left at four o'clock and Aldo Moro reserved the table for this time next year On March 13 1979 Cardinals Benelli and Felici decided not to travel to Vittorio Veneto that day After all all the others were dead They too unaware of their impending doom were as good as dead TRUE LIFE TRUE CRIME Murder by the Grace of God Lucien Gregoire,2012 Did his struggle for basic human rights and dignity for born out of wedlock children the handicapped women the remarried homosexuals and the poor cost him his life Love Is a Journey Mo Guernon,2025-05-06 Love is a Journey is the remarkable story of Albino Luciani known to the world as Pope John Paul I from his harrowing birth to his tragic death just 33 days into his 1978 pontificate the shortest pontificate in history After years of dedicated archival research and after interviewing dozens of figures in the Catholic hierarchy as well as Pope John Paul I's niece author Mo Guernon explores Luciani's family history personality and character to reveal the very essence of the man who became known as the Smiling Pope Guernon analyzes Luciani's major public pronouncements and his most significant writings which shed considerable light on his fundamental beliefs and worldview In the concluding chapters of the book Guernon assesses Pope John Paul I's legacy and journey toward sainthood and the beguiling question of how the Catholic Church might have evolved had his pontificate endured through the 1980s and beyond The events of Luciani's life are so compelling so remarkable so fast moving that the narrative reads like a novel Guernon paints a multi-dimensional portrait of the man that prominently displays his virtues and shortcomings successes and failures heroic deeds and personal doubts about his own courage He highlights Luciani's progressive views of issues of his time the crises in his personal and priestly life his discomfort with the spotlight and his anxiety about succeeding the popular Pope Paul VI the relative simplicity of his inauguration as pope and the unprecedented power he wielded on those with whom he came into contact both personally and through the mass media Above all Guernon attempts to capture the pope's mysterious ability to engender love among people of all faiths and nonbelievers too with his inimitable humility and almost divine smile A striking example of his influence came from punk rocker Patti Smith who was so enamored of Luciani that she wrote a song about the pope and dedicated her 1979 album Wave to him Pope John Paul I s impact on the world during his 33 day pontificate was simultaneously profound and perplexing and until now underappreciated In little more than a month the Luciani dazzled people of all ages races and nations while modernizing the papacy and establishing an ambitious agenda for promoting peace and dialogue among all peoples a program subsequently carried out by his successors particularly Pope Francis And in fact Pope Francis established the Vatican Pope John Paul I Foundation in memory of his beloved mentor Never has a world leader accomplished so much in so little time
