Third Take Australian Filmmakers Talk:

Australian Cinema After Mabo Felicity Collins, Therese Davis, 2004-10-27 Publisher Description ROD TAYLOR:
AN AUSSIE IN HOLLYWOOD Stephen Vagg, 2014-11-05 Before Sam Worthington Hugh Jackman Russell Crowe and Mel Gibson there was Rod Taylor For over twenty years Rod was the biggest Australian movie name in Hollywood starring in such films as The Time Machine The Birds and The Vips Best known for his action roles he was equally adept at romantic comedies and dramas working with top stars such as Doris Day John Wayne Elizabeth Taylor Jane Fonda and with major directors such as Alfred Hitchcock Walt Disney and Michelangelo Antonioni At a time when Australians could rarely see or hear themselves on screen Rod Taylor helped keep his country in the public eye and he paved the way for the Aussie actors that followed him Rod Taylor An Aussie in Hollywood is his first full length biography a thrilling story of a working class Sydney boy who went to Hollywood took on the Americans at their own game on their own turf in one of the toughest industries there is and won It is also the story of a talented actor who was almost brought down by the demons of alcohol and ego but who ultimately overcame them to triumph A must for all Rod Taylor fans Mystical Gaze of the Cinema Richard Leonard, 2009-02-15
Magical out of this world an experience you will never forget Peter Weir's films have enthralled audiences around the globe Whether in iconic Australian works such as Picnic at Hanging Rock and Gallipoli or international mainstream thrillers such as Witness Weir has deliberately created mystical movie experiences Modern cinema studies is used to dissecting films on the basis of gender class or race now for the first time Richard Leonard shows that a mystical gaze also exists and is exercised in the secular multiplex temples of today The Mystical Gaze of the Cinema is a meticulous and accessible book that uses a psychoanalytic approach incorporating the insights of Jung film theory and theology to break new ground in what continues to be a hot topic in cinema studies the spectator screen relationship Leonard provides a fresh and innovative perspective on what happens when we behold a film Peter Weir John C. Tibbetts, 2014-02-04 Peter Weir Interviews is the first volume of interviews to be published on the esteemed Australian director Although Weir born 1944 has acquired a reputation of being guarded about his life and work these interviews by archivists journalists historians and colleagues reveal him to be a most amiable and forthcoming subject He talks about the precious desperation of the art the madness the willingness to experiment in all his films the adaptation process from novel to film when he tells a scriptwriter I'm going to eat your script it is going to be part of my blood and his self assessment as merely a jester with cap and bells going from court to court He is encouraged even provoked to tell his own story from his childhood in a Sydney suburb in the 1950s to his apprenticeship in the Australian television industry in the 1960s his preparations to shoot his first features in the early 1970s his international celebrity in Australia and Hollywood An extensive new interview details his current plans for a new film Interviews discuss Weir's diverse and impressive range of work his earlier films Picnic at Hanging Rock The Last Wave Gallipoli and The Year of Living Dangerously as well as Academy Award nominated Witness Dead Poets Society Green Card The Truman Show and

Master and Commander This book confirms that the trajectory of Weir s life and work parallels and embodies Australia s own quest to define and express a historical and cultural identity APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Media International Australia ,2003 Third Take Raffaele Caputo,Geoff Burton,2002-06-01 Newsfront is about how we were and still are repeatedly colonised by America in different ways Whenever we seem to get our head above the parapet it s then knocked down again The recent arrival of Fox Studios is doing much the same now as was done back then Bob Ellis I think there should always be some sort of backing for new talent in this country which will evolve with all of its own set of problems but one always has to remember that the film industry is an international business Don McAlpine The issue of globalisation is certainly a reality for me as it is for everyone else but largely it passes me by I would feel under threat if I were not able to make another film but so far the only threat I ve felt is in regard to my own inventiveness or lack thereof Rolf de Heer Third Take is a collection of articles and conversations by Australian film makers which explores the place of Australian cinema in a globalised world A world where Planet Hollywood is not merely the name of a restaurant chain but a way of life Third Take looks at the contributions of Australian film makers working in America Including renowned cinematographers Don McAlpine Romeo Juliet and Moulin Rouge and John Seale The English Patient and Harry Potter and the Philosopher s Stone Peter Weir focuses on the director s voice and what it might mean in the world of film making today Third Take devotes a section to the classic Australian film of the 1970s Newsfront in an extraordinarily candid witty and eclectic mosaic of the making of the film and includes contributions from the film s producer scriptwriter as well as director Phillip Noyce who writes of the forces in his life that led to the making of Newsfront There has been a lot written about the development of an Australian aesthetic however there have been no forums for those who actually make the films to discuss their own work and the work of fellow film makers Third Take Australian Film makers Talk gives film makers a voice allowing them to engage with the issues and concerns usually raised by journalists and critics Australian Book Review ,2002 APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1999 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list International Index to Film Periodicals ,2007 The Australian Jurist Reports Victoria.
