World Class Performance Through Total Quality Paul. Spenley, 2012-12-06

TOTAL QUALITY MANAGEMENT TQM A COMPETITIVE EDGE In the context of the European and Western manufacturing challenge being set by the Far Eastern Machine it is of critical importance that manufacturing competitiveness is improved in Western companies The ability to export successfully is becoming even more critical to the economic well being of developed countries worldwide The Japanese domination of the motor cycle and domestic consumer markets has had a significant impact on the balance of payments in Western Europe and the USA All the signs are that Japanese companies are ready and able to enter other markets aggressively through takeovers acquisitions and off shore manufacturing facilities In Western Europe the creation of the Single Market in 1992 has provided major opportunities for companies to increase their market share Unfortunately many companies in the West have shown an inability to succeed even in their market when faced with tough well organized opposition such as that from the Far East There is very little time left for Western companies to catch up the challenge is becoming more fiercely competitive daily The time to improve competitive edge may be too late for many companies as the European frontiers are dismantled and the Japanese companies continue to build off shore plants in Europe For example it is a fact that companies are increasingly x
