Topsfield Fair:

Topsfield Fair David H. Fletcher,2003 The Topsfield Fair is the oldest agricultural fair in America In 1818 men of Essex County formed the Essex Agricultural Society in Topsfield Massachusetts with Col Timothy Pickering of Salem a Revolutionary War hero agriculturist and elder statesman as president The mission was to promote and share new and progressive methods of agriculture and to show cattle at an annual outing For nearly a century the fair was moved to various towns within the county until 1910 when it settled into its permanent home in Topsfield For nearly two hundred years the Topsfield Fair has attracted millions of people to witness a spectacular fall event rooted in agriculture but also filled with thrills and family entertainment Many forms of horse dog motorcycle and automobile racing over the years have garnered gate receipts to pay for premiums and permanent display buildings for the agricultural exhibitions Exhibits range from home and farm products to horses poultry oxen cattle sheep swine goats rabbits bees flowers fruits vegetables and trees Vaudeville water follies pageants rodeos thrilling acts and rides singing stars horse hitches the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the commercial and food establishments have always added to the atmosphere of the fair Topsfield Elizabeth Dinan,John Dinan,1999 This unique collection of photographs and postcards presents the first pictorial history of Topsfield Massachusetts Topsfield is a collection of beautiful old photographs and postcards documenting the history of the town from its earliest days to the late 1950s Quickly approaching its 350th anniversary the town is known for its beautiful summer estates and the acclaimed Parson Capen House one of the world s finest preserved examples of Elizabethan architecture About 35 years after the purchase of the land by John Winthrop in 1616 from Masconomet chief of the Agawam tribe there was enough of a thriving agricultural community to establish a village The Parson Capen House was built in 1683 by Reverend Joseph Capen and is now beautifully restored and maintained by the Topsfield Historical Society drawing visitors from around the world At the beginning of the twentieth century Topsfield transformed from a primarily agricultural community into a rural suburban town with many lovely estates such as the Bradley Palmer Estate Early images including those from the Otto Lake glass plate photograph collection show early town events such as the Topsfield Fair which is the country s oldest town fair These fascinating images give us a wonderful view of life in early Topsfield and document the rich history of local landmarks and beautiful countryside Fun with the Family Massachusetts Marcia Glassman-Jaffe,2014-06-03 Written by a parent this opinionated personal and easy to use guide has hundreds of ideas to keep the kids entertained for an hour a day or a weekend Fun with the Family Massachusetts leads the way to historical attractions children s museums festivals parks and much more Geared towards parents with children between the ages of two and twelve Fun with the Family Massachusetts features interesting facts and sidebars as well as practical tips about traveling with your little ones Route 1 Dan Tobyne,2017-08-15 Stretching from end to end of the thirteen original colonies from Fort Kent Maine to Key West Florida the connecting sections of the Atlantic Coast Highway known as United States Route No 1 have formed a highway of history for three hundred years Washington traveled it repeatedly in peace and war Now the 94 mile section between New York and Philadelphia carries a heavier average traffic than any other road of equal length in the world Route 1 connects New York Princeton and Philadelphia the three cities at which the capital was established in the early years of the Republic with Washington the final choice and it passes near or through nearly all of the Revolutionary battlefields and many of those of the Civil War It grew from blazed footpaths of the settlement era to its present condition which the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture reports as surfaced for 84 percent of the distance graded but unsurfaced for 15 percent and unimproved for less than 1 percent Work is proceeding on the less improved sections The motorist traveling the road today is reminded frequently of the life and customs of the early days by the old towns and villages through which Route 1 passes but they also cannot miss the unique places of interest coffee shops gift shops restaurants stores museums parks and scenic turnouts to be found along its whole length A tour down Route 1 is a trip of history and nostalgia as well as a slice across American culture with all its quirks and eccentricities in full bloom

The Historical Collections of the Topsfield Historical Society Topsfield Historical Society, Topsfield, Mass,1921 200 Years of the Topsfield Fair Alexandra Pecci,Jim O'Brien,2018 A day at the fair can there be a more classic slice of Americana And when it comes to fairs you won t find one that offers more history tradition or education than the iconic Topsfield Fair in the North Shore region of Massachusetts The seeds of this seminal event trace back to 1818 in Essex County which had survived two drought related famines in a five year period In a classic example of community a group of 20 farmers gathered to trade ideas and information and in the process formed the Essex Agricultural Society As its founders wrote the Society s goal was to promote and improve the agricultural interests of farmers and others in Essex County Starting with its early cattle shows the Society has done just that Now as we celebrate the 200th anniversary of its founding the Topsfield Fair stands as a reminder of the importance of and hard work behind agriculture and farming At today s Fair you ll see everything from oxen and horse pull contests and a vibrant flower show to a giant pumpkin contest and the biggest beekeeping exhibit in America Yet you ll also see the types of fair attractions that draw us in midway rides games concessions entertainment and more In this richly illustrated well researched book you ll get a closer view of the Topsfield Fair and its fascinating history than ever before It s the next best thing to being there

As the war in Iraq heated up and the American soldiers were deployed overseas to take part in the conflict the need to send care packages and calm the nerves of their families became increasingly important One small community in America rose to this challenge A family from the New England community of Danvers MA whose son and daughter were both deployed at the time received a call on the day the US entered Iraq Their daughter a deployed nurse named Tina asked her parents for their help in collecting magazines and games to give to the troops who were recovering in the combat hospital This simple call for help began a journey that included the formation of a non profit organization a nation wide appeal for supplies contributions from across the country a trip to Iraq to speak to the troops care packages exceeding one million and national recognition This heartwarming story will tell you of the happy days the emotional moments the surprise visits the tragic phone calls and the satisfying feeling of knowing you made a difference in a soldier s life and in a family s fear brought on by the separation This is the story of helping others of sharing pain and grief of laughing together and of knowing when the opportunity came to do something good for your country you stepped up and took the plunge It is a story of patriotism a story of giving a story of being true Americans
