The Confessions of Saint Augustine is thought to be the first autobiography in Western civilization and is considered by many to be one of the most important religious works of all time. While not a complete account of Augustine's life, for Augustine wrote Confessions in his early forties and would live well into his seventies, it is one of the most complete first-hand accounts of anyone's life from the fourth or fifth century in which the author outlines the sins of his youth and conversion to Christianity. The Confessions tells of its author's upbringing in Algeria, his place at the Imperial court of Milan, his struggle to overcome his sexual desires, and the ultimate dedication of his life to Christ and Christian ways. The Confessions are not simply a recount of the author's life but a true exploration of what it is to be Christian and the struggles that one must overcome in order to find Christ and live a more pious life. A pioneering work of autobiography, The Confessions remains one of the most important works of spiritual devotion ever written. The Confessions of Saint Augustine is considered the all-time number one Christian classic. It is an extended poetic, passionate, intimate prayer. Augustine was probably forty-three when he began this endeavor. He had been a baptized Catholic for ten years, a priest for six, and a bishop for only two. His pre-baptismal life raised questions in the community: Was his conversion genuine? The first hearers were captivated, as many millions have been over the following sixteen centuries. His experience of God speaks to us across time with little need of transpositions. This new translation by Edward Bouverie Pusey masterfully captures his experience.

The Confessions of Augustine Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1927 The Confessions of St. Augustine Saint Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, E. B. Pusey, Edward Bouverie, 2014-08-23

The Confessions of Saint Augustine By Saint Augustine Bishop of Hippo Translated by E. B. Pusey Edward Bouverie. Confessions Latin Confessiones is the name of an autobiographical work consisting of 13 books by St. Augustine of Hippo, written in Latin between AD 397 and AD 398. Modern English translations of it are sometimes published under the title The Confessions of St. Augustine in order to distinguish the book from other books with similar titles. Its original title was Confessions in Thirteen Books, and it was composed to be read out loud, with each book being a complete unit. The work outlines Augustine's sinful youth and his conversion to Christianity. It is widely seen as the first Western autobiography ever written and was an influential model for Christian writers throughout the following 1,000 years of the Middle Ages. It is not a complete autobiography as it was written in his early 40s and he lived long afterwards, producing another important work, City of God. It does nonetheless provide an unbroken record of his development of thought and is the most complete record of any single person from the 4th and 5th centuries. It is a significant theological work featuring spiritual meditations and insights. In the work, St. Augustine writes about how much he regrets having led a sinful and immoral life. He discusses his regrets for following the Manichaean religion and believing in astrology. He writes about Nebridius's role in helping to persuade him that astrology was not only incorrect but evil, and St. Ambrose's role in his conversion to Christianity. The first nine books are autobiographical, and the last four are commentary. He shows intense sorrow for his sexual sins and writes on the importance of sexual morality. The books were written as prayers to God, thus the title based on the Psalms of David and it begins with For Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless till they rest in Thee The work is thought to be divisible into books which symbolize various aspects of the Trinity and trinitarian belief
