The Contextualized Gospel:

Contextualization of the Gospel Andrew James Prince, 2017-06-07 There has been heightened interest and prolific publication by missiologists about contextualization since the term was first coined in 1972 There has been ongoing debate particularly amongst evangelicals themselves regarding which of these meanings methods and models of contextualization are acceptable to use Much of the debate has been carried out by academics and practitioners whose observations and conclusions have been largely shaped by the social sciences and practical theology In contrast the disciplines of biblical studies and Christian thought have not featured significantly in the debate The purpose of this research is to establish that biblical studies and Christian thought in general and Scripture and the church fathers in particular have an essential contribution to make in the contextualization debate and should form part of an evangelical approach to contextualization of the gospel alongside the social sciences and practical theology Following a review of the literature on contextualization over the past forty years the research examines the book of Acts as representative of Scripture and the work of John Chrysostom as a representative church father Contextual principles that are consistent with an evangelical approach to contextualization of the gospel are drawn from each work establishing the value of biblical studies and Christian thought in contextualization

Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2005-10-12 To provide a model for today's missionary efforts Dean Flemming examines how the New Testament authors particularly in Acts Paul's letters and the Gospels contextualized the gospel for particular cultures and or communities

One Gospel for All Nations Brad Vaughn, 2015-12-14 The Bible tells us what to believe the gospel Did you know it also shows how to contextualize the gospel In One Gospel for All Nations Jackson Wu does more than talk about principles He gets practical When the biblical writers explain the gospel they consistently use a pattern that is both firm and flexible Wu builds on this insight to demonstrate a model of contextualization that starts with interpretation and can be applied in any culture In the process he explains practically why we must not choose between the Bible and culture Wu highlights various implications for both missionaries and theologians Contextualization should be practical not pragmatic theological not theoretical The Contextualized Gospel Samuel B. Kamara, 2003

The Gospel in the Western Context Gert-Jan Roest, 2018-10-02 In The Gospel in the Western Context Gert Jan Roest focuses on discerning a Western contextual gospel an endeavour that is very relevant to the current state of Christianity in the postmodern and post Christendom West After giving an in depth analysis and synthesis of how Hendrikus Berkhof and Colin Gunton read the Western context and contextualize their Christology he develops a gospel centred model for reading the context Meanwhile he makes a creative and much needed attempt to connect the two disciplines of systematic theology and missiology and convincingly shows that both disciplines cannot only enrich one another but also can give church practitioners insight and wisdom for their tasks

Disciples of the Nations Paul Sungro Lee, 2021-02-25 Written by someone who lived and experienced cross cultural mission proportionally each in America Africa and Asia Disciples of the Nations provides readers both practical and scholarly models of the world mission in the context of global multiplication of discipleship and church planting Field tested and validated effective through empirical researches Professor Paul Lee and the Evangelical Alliance for Preacher Training Commission team expanded the kingdom of God into fifteen countries of Africa and Asia by producing thousands of disciples and planting over three hundred local churches through the multiplication of Christian leadership training Lee shares the secret of the exponential growth in this unprecedented volume This is a must read for anyone aspiring to be used by God to manifest a kingdom building lifestyle in cross cultural contexts

Mission Carlos F. Cardoza-Orlandi, 2002-06-01 Mission has become for many North American Christians an ambiguous and often uncomfortable term To many it brings to mind a past in which western culture was identified with the gospel in missionary practice and programs Distressed with this history and uncertain about how to overcome it many prefer to ignore the New Testament mandate that the church must be in mission if it is to be the church Others swing the other way declaring that everything the church does is mission depriving the idea of mission of its power to define those specific actions of God which proclaim the gospel and build God s kingdom The church exists by missions just as fire exists by burning With these words of Emil Brunner the author reminds us that to be the church is to be in mission After describing the various captivities of mission which plague North American Christianity the author argues for a robust and engaged practice of mission beginning in congregations and extending to the broader community

Contextualization of the Gospel among the Showa Oromo of Ethiopia Wasihun S. Gutema, 2017-01-09 Master s Thesis from the year 2009 in the subject Theology Miscellaneous grade Pass course Final Research paper language English abstract This research paper is about the contextualization of the Gospel among the Oromo of Showa in Ethiopia It deals with the culture and language of the people and how gospel contextualization is possible through the culture and language of the given people It studies the Showa Oromo clan for reference purpose but its principles are applicable to any culture and can be a lesson for anyone who aims at evangelization through the culture and language The research paper consists of three parts including the introductory part The first part of the research consists of a brief description and analysis of the Showa Oromo and how the Ethiopian Orthodox Church EOC failed in here evangelization strategy because of the unawareness of the cultural conditionings of the gospel and inability to preach in the language of the Showa Oromo This part elucidates the failure of the EOC from different angles and explains that the failure of the EOC is the failure of the other churches too since all belong to the one body of Christ As a remedy this section forwards the importance of ecumenism and partnering between the EOC and the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus EECMY as a tool to learn from one another and engage in mission together The second part introduces the role of the EECMY in contextualizing the gospel to the Showa Oromo through the language and culture of the people The EECMY contextualized the gospel to the culture of the people making points of contact already found in the traditional Showa Oromo faith Here the research explains the role of the EECMY in contextualizing the

Irreechaa Showa Oromo thanksgiving into Biblical Christianity The EECMY used traditional name of god Waaqayyo in evangelizing the people which helped the people to come to Christ The EECMY also gave the people the Bible in their language by contextualizing some pre Christian Showa Oromo terms into evangelical Christianity and using the words in translation This section also explains how the EECMY used native language in preaching and teaching the people The EECMY s incarnational ministry that involved holistic approach is also explained in detail The third section of the paper deals with the missiology of the Lutheran Church because the EECMY which this paper explains about is a Lutheran in tradition and heritage Here the role of the EECMY in mission and the Lutheran mission theories are elucidated A Case Study in Contextualization Fred W. McRae,2014-01-30 The content of the gospel never changes however communicating it constantly fluctuates Conveying the gospel to a homeless hungry woman may include providing a hot bowl of chili while an agnostic co worker might be open after several rounds of golf The message is the same but the method of communicating it is as wide and varied as life itself Finding the correct method is like hitting the sweet spot on a tennis racket or golf club It takes time study and practice but once you find it you have more success The sweet spot in missions is called contextualization and involves much more than learning a new language It means knowing a country s religious political and social conditions Correct theology financial backing and language acquisition are meaningless without contextualization This book tells the story of a German organization struggling to contextualize the gospel in a very hostile environment Its mission was to revive a dying church characterized by centuries old religious pride and pluralism This study details the challenges of faithfully communicating the gospel in a post Christian culture and serves as a study to enable missionaries to recognize and respond to cultural issues affecting the contextualization process The Contextualized Gospel Samuel B. Kamara,2003

Contextualization Bruce J. Nicholls,2003 How can a Christian brought up in the metropolis of Sao Paulo speak the gospel clearly to a Buddhist raised in the mountains of Tibet Every missionary confronts the difficulty of cross cultural communication But missionaries from the Third World Bruce Nicholls says must understand four cultures the Bible s the Western missionaries who first brought the gospel their own and the people s to whom they take the gospel Recognizing this Nicholls proposes that the gospel be contextualized that is presented in forms which are characteristic of the culture to which the gospel is taken The problem is to find the right cultural forms and thus keep the gospel message both clear and biblical Nicholls deals with tough social theological and hermeneutical questions and proposes a direction for missions in the future Bruce J Nicholls formerly executive secretary of the World Evangelical Fellowship Theological Commission was a career missionary in India working in theological education and in pastoral ministry with the Church of North India He was also Editor of the Evangelical Review of Theology for 18 years and is now Editor of the Asia Bible Commentary series The Call to Contextualize Jae Hoon Lee,2026-09-08 Equip Your Church to Reach Today s Generations Are your church s outreach efforts feeling stalled Do you sense a growing disconnect between traditional evangelism methods and the people you long to reach If you've felt that familiar methods are failing and trust has been lost you are not alone The Call to Contextualize offers a practical path forward for ministry leaders seeking to address this crisis of evangelism Drawing on insights from twenty three years of effective ministry pastor Jae Hoon Lee uses biblical examples theological principles and practical case studies to present an incarnational model for evangelism called accommodation evangelism that adapts the gospel message and methods to the audience's needs and cultural context while preserving the gospel's integrity In The Call to Contextualize you will find A theology of contextualization and accommodation evangelism Discover how to effectively communicate the gospel in a way that is recipient centered adapting the message to the audience's language and cultural context Practical ministry application Learn from biblical examples such as Jesus and Paul alongside the extensive experience of Onnuri Church to implement contextualized evangelism in your ministry Biblical theological and missional foundations Explore the scriptural underpinnings of a recipient centered approach to the gospel focusing on principles of divine communication and the theological concept of incarnation Gospel and culture Study how the gospel is conveyed through cultural forms necessitating the church's adaptation of its methods to resonate with contemporary society while being faithful to the original message Missional communities Embrace the call for your church to become a missional community that prioritizes relationships as the foundation of evangelism and values reconciliation as a core expression of God's love for humanity This book offers encouragement and practical guidance to churches seeking to reach the lost with wisdom creativity and love It's time to reimagine what evangelism can look like in your context Equip yourself and your church to engage people with the gospel in ways that truly resonate with The Call to Contextualize Contextualization Bruce Nicholls, 1979 Issues in Contextualization Charles H. Kraft, 2016-08-25 The gospel is to be planted as a seed that will sprout within and be nourished by the rain and nutrients in the cultural soil of the receiving peoples What sprouts from true gospel seed may look quite different above ground from the way it looked in the sending society but beneath the ground at the worldview level the roots are to be the same and the life comes from the same source What does a vibrant indigenous faith in Jesus look like How do we communicate the essential meanings of the gospel in forms appropriate to a particular people at a particular time Issues in Contextualization Charles Kraft's latest book presents his own insights on this topic from decades of experience teaching and ministering around the world Significantly Kraft's analysis includes an exploration of spiritual power an aspect frequently neglected in such discussions This volume is an update of Kraft's classic work Appropriate Christianity It contains fresh presentations of previous articles and new insights into topics such as insiders followers of Jesus outside the religious culture of Christianity and power encounter Toward a Contextualized Theology for the Third World Kenneth D. Gill, 1994 This study traces the origin of Jesus Name Pentecostalism in Mexico to determine its distinctives as a Mexican movement The movement has historically been called Jesus Only or Oneness While focusing on the Iglesia Apostolica de la Fe en Cristo Jes's Iglesia Evangelica Cristiana Espiritual La Luz del Mundo and El Buen Pastor are briefly discussed The Oneness doctrine of the Trinity is examined to determine its adequacy as a trinitarian theological model. The assertion is made that Western Christianity must accept and promote the use of alternative theological models in non-Western contexts in order to assist the Christians of the Third World to develop meaningful contextualized theology for their own cultures.
