

WHAT IS THESIS STATEMENT?

A thesis statement is a sentence that captures the main point or claim of an essay or research paper. It serves as a roadmap, guiding the reader through the arguments that are presented in the work. Clear and concise, a thesis statement sets the tone and direction for the entire piece of writing.

Thesis and Dissertation Writing in a Second Language Brian Paltridge, Sue Starfield, 2007-06-11 The relationship of supervisor to student has traditionally been seen as one of apprenticeship in which much learning is tacit with the expectation that the student will become much like the tutor The changing demographics of higher education in conjunction with imperatives of greater accountability and support for research students have rendered this scenario both less likely and less desirable and unfortunately many supervisors are challenged by the task of guiding non native speaker students to completion This handbook is the ideal guide for all supervisors working with undergraduate and postgraduate non native speaker students writing a thesis or dissertation in English as it explicitly unpacks thesis writing using language that is accessible to research supervisors from any discipline

Considerations 175 Index 193      Morality and the Nature of Law Kenneth Einar Himma, 2019-03-07 Morality and the Nature of Law explores the conceptual relationship between morality and the criteria that determine what counts as law in a given society the criteria of legal validity Is it necessary condition for a legal system to include moral criteria of legal validity Is it even possible for a legal system to have moral criteria of legal validity The book considers the views of natural law theorists ranging from Blackstone to Dworkin and rejects them arguing that it is not conceptually necessary that the criteria of legal validity include moral norms Further it rejects the exclusive positivist view arguing instead that it is conceptually possible for the criteria of validity to include moral norms In the process of considering such questions this book considers Raz s views concerning the nature of authority and Shapiro s views about the guidance function of law which have been thought to repudiate the conceptual possibility of moral criteria of legal validity The book then articulates a thought experiment that shows that it is possible for a legal system to have such criteria and concludes with a chapter that argues that any legal system like that of the United States which affords final authority over the content of the law to judges who are fallible with respect to the requirements of morality is a legal system with purely source based criteria of validity      God and the Liberation of Reason in French Philosophy Stephanie Rumpza, M. E. Littlejohn, 2025-09-18 A major reconsideration of contemporary French philosophy s encounter with the question of God with contributions from leading scholars intervening in recent anglophone reception of the new phenomenology      Romanticism, Rhetoric and the Search for the Sublime Craig R. Smith, 2018-11-07 Relying on the author s established expertise in rhetorical theory and political communication this book re contextualizes Romantic rhetorical theory in the late 18th and early 19th centuries to provide a foundation for a Neo Romantic rhetorical theory for our own time In the process it uses a unique methodology to correct misconceptions about many Romantic writers The methodology of the early chapters uses a dialectical approach to trace Romanticism and its opposition the Enlightenment back through Humanism and its opposition Scholasticism to St Augustine These chapters include a revisionist analysis of the church s treatment of Galileo in the course of showing how difficult it was for scientific study to be accepted in the academic world The study also re conceptualizes Jean Jacques Rousseau David Hume and Edmund Burke as bridge figures to the Romantic Era instead of as Enlightenment figures This move throws new light on the major artists of the Romantic Era who are examined in chapters seven and eight Chapter nine focuses on Percy Bysshe Shelley and his development of the rhetorical poem and thereby provides a new genre in the Romantic catalogue Chapter ten uses the foregoing to analyse and reconceptualize the rhetorical theories of Hugh Blair and Thomas De Quincey The concluding chapter then synthesizes their theories with relevant contemporary rhetorical theories thereby constructing a Neo Romantic theory for our own time In the process this book links the Romantics love of nature to the current environmental crisis      Hans Kelsen and the Natural Law Tradition Peter Langford, Ian Bryan, John McGarry, 2019-03-19 Hans Kelsen and the Natural Law Tradition provides the first sustained examination of Hans Kelsen s critical engagement itself founded upon a distinctive theory of legal positivism with the Natural Law Tradition This edited collection commences with a comprehensive introduction which establishes the character of Kelsen s critical engagement as a general critique of natural law combined with a more specific critique of representative thinkers of the Natural Law Tradition The subsequent chapters are then devoted to a detailed analysis of Kelsen s engagement with prominent theorists from the Natural Law Tradition The volume concludes with an exploration focusing upon the delineation of a non positivist legal theory in the debate between Robert Alexy and Joseph Raz of the continued presence of Kelsenian legal positivism in contemporary legal theory
