They Would Not Be Silent:

Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume VII of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will discover Saint Augustines commentaries on the writings of John and his first writings as a newly converted Christian In the Soliloquies Augustine reasons through his conversion trying to justify his new faith these are intensely personal journeys toward truth the product of a thoughtful soul seeking comfort and reassurance Spiritual seekers wavering in their faith may find both sections of this book helpful in exploring their beliefs

A Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church, First Series, Volume 7 Philip Schaff, 2022-04-21 Philip Schaff's classic work colloquially known as The Early Church Fathers is an invaluable resource filled with the primary documents and early theological building blocks for the Christian church Comprised of thirty eight volumes it is broken into three parts the Ante Nicene Fathers and Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers First and Second Series

The Homilies On John St. Augustine of Hippo, St Augustine was an indefatigable preacher He considered regular preaching an indispensable part of the duty of a bishop To his homilies we owe most of his exegetical labors The homilies were delivered extempore taken down by scribes and slightly revised by Augustin They retain their colloquial form devotional tone frequent repetitions and want of literary finish He would rather be deficient in rhetoric than not be understood by the people He was cheered by the eager attention and acclamations of his hearers but never fully satisfied with his performance My preaching he says almost always displeases me I eagerly long for something better of which I often have an inward enjoyment in my thoughts before I can put them into audible words Then when I find that my power of expression is not equal to my inner apprehension I am grieved at the inability of my tongue to answer to my heart De Catech Rudibus ch II 3 in this Series Vol III 284 His chief merit as an interpreter is his profound theological insight which makes his exegetical works permanently useful This volume contains The Homilies or Tractates on the GOSPEL OF JOHN In Joannis Evangelium Tractatus CXXIV Augustin delivered them to his flock at Hippo about A D 416 or later assembly my beloved there must of necessity be among you many natural men who know only according to the flesh and cannot yet raise themselves to spiritual understanding I am in great difficulty how as the Lord shall grant I may be able to express or in my small measure to explain what has been read from the Gospel In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God for this the natural man does not perceive
