

An aerial photograph of Fort Wayne, Indiana, taken during the "blue hour" of sunset. The foreground shows a modern park with a large, multi-level concrete and stone structure that appears to be a playground or a public square, situated along the banks of a river. The river's surface is calm, reflecting the sky and the surrounding city. In the middle ground, there are lush green trees and a blue metal bridge. The background features a city skyline with various buildings, including a prominent church spire and a tall modern skyscraper. The sky is a mix of deep blue and soft orange, with a few wispy clouds and a small airplane visible in the distance.
