A gripping account of how a major air disaster was averted by the captain and former Top Gun pilot Instinctively I release my pressure on the sidestick Out of my subconscious a survival technique from a previous life emerges Neutralise I m not in control so I must neutralise controls I never imagined I d use this part of my military experience in a commercial airliner On routine flight QF72 from Singapore to Perth on 7 October 2008 the primary flight computers went rogue causing the plane to pitch down nose first towards the Indian Ocean twice The Airbus A330 carrying 315 passengers and crew was out of control with violent negative G forces propelling anyone and anything untethered through the cabin roof It took the skill and discipline of veteran US Navy Top Gun Kevin Sullivan captain of the ill fated flight to wrestle the plane back under control and perform a high stakes emergency landing at a RAAF base on the WA coast 1200 kilometres north of Perth In No Man s Land the captain of the flight tells the full story for the first time It s a gripping blow by blow account of how along with his co pilots Sullivan relied on his elite military training to land the gravely malfunctioning plane and narrowly avert what could have been a horrific air disaster As automation becomes the way of the future and in the aftermath of Ethiopian Airlines flight 302 and Lion Air flight JT610 the story of QF72 raises important questions about how much control we relinquish to computers and whether more checks and balances are needed A gripping read in the tradition of Sully Miracle on the Hudson by Chesley B Sullenberger Our Boys ,1914 The American Stationer ,1909 Merchants Manual of Advertising M.
