Flying ,1918 Flying, Fighting and Reflection Peter Jacobs, 2018-09-30 This is the thrilling account of the last remaining Battle of Britain ace fighter pilot Tom Ginger Neil Neil was one of an elite band nicknamed The Few by Winston Churchill he flew Hurricanes during 141 combat missions in that battle and went on to command the first Spitfire XII squadron during 1942-43 as the RAF went on the offensive in north west Europe In this the only full account of Neil's life to be published in collaboration with his family we learn how he became a poster boy for the war effort and how he credits his sixth sense for keeping him alive during the Second World War There was however one terrifyingly close brush with death when in 1940 he had a mid-air collision with another Hurricane With the rear section of his aircraft gone the plane was out of control and hurtling to the ground yet somehow he managed to bail out and miraculously survived with only a minor leg injury As well as RAF service during the Siege of Malta Wing Commander Neil who is now in his late nineties also served with the Americans during the D-Day landings During his career Neil was awarded two Distinguished Flying Crosses for the destruction of at least fourteen enemy aircraft and was a successful test pilot after the war before commanding a jet fighter reconnaissance squadron in Egypt's troubled Canal Zone during the 1950s for which he was awarded the Air Force Cross With contributions from the man himself this book also looks at his life after the RAF and his career as a successful author For military buffs and novices alike it is a must-read account of a true war hero The Wright Flyer, 2006 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1918 Fighting the Flying Circus Eddie Rickenbacker, 1919
