I Died a Million Times Robert Miklitsch, 2021-01-11 In the 1950s the gangster movie and film noir crisscrossed to create gangster noir Robert Miklitsch takes readers into this fascinating subgenre of films focused on crime syndicates crooked cops and capers With the Senate's organized crime hearings and the brighter than bright myth of the American Dream as a backdrop Miklitsch examines the style and history and the production and cultural politics of classic pictures from The Big Heat and The Asphalt Jungle to lesser known gems like 711 Ocean Drive and post Fifties movies like Ocean's Eleven Miklitsch pays particular attention to trademark leitmotifs including the individual versus the collective the family as a locus of dissension and rapport the real world roots of the heist picture and the syndicate as an octopus with its tentacles deep into law enforcement corporate America and government If the memes of gangster noir remain prototypically dark the look of the films becomes lighter and flatter reflecting the influence of television and the realization that under the cover of respectability crime had moved from the underworld into the mainstream of contemporary everyday life

Iconographies of Power Ulla Haselstein, Berndt Ostendorf, Peter Schneck, 2003 Today the question of iconography has taken on a new and more general urgency As a dominant cultural practice iconography embraces the politics as well as the poetics of visual representation within their specific historical and cultural conditions In its contemporary significance the question of iconography moreover reaches beyond disciplinary boundaries of conventional definitions and interpretations of the relation between words and images in a demand to critically compare and contrast their different iconographies as cultural practices of power In their distinct arguments and from different perspectives the essays collected in this volume are all similarly concerned with the iconographical power and poetics of the image including a broad range of visual representations prints and illustrations painting sculpture and concept art documentary and art photography film comedy and digital imagery In all these instances the image is looked at not as an exclusive and isolated phenomenon but rather emphatically as a visual and contextual event as both the source and target of the collision and the collusion of word and image as instances and symptoms of contemporary iconographic practice alike With contributions by Winfried Fluck Mario Klarer Mick Gidley Douglas Tallack Heinz Ickstadt Peter Schneck Maren Stange Hanne Loreck Zsofia Ban Susanne v Falkenhausen Deniz Gokturk Wendy Steiner Hanjo Berressem Kaja Silverman Michael Wetzel
