What are We Thinking? Wessel Bentley, 2008 This book gives an insight into current theological debates in the Methodist Church with particular reference to Methodism in Southern Africa There are a number of things that make this book valuable and unique First there is the variety of authors and topics Second the variety of topics reflects key points in our social cultural economic and political context Third there is a need for up to date books that relate African perspectives on contemporary theological concerns Fourth the book does not aim to offer normative perspectives Rather it invites readers to become thinking Christians in our own contexts While Christian readers of all denominations will be challenged and enriched by this book a fifth reason the uniqueness of this contribution is that it gives contemporary expression to the spirit of John Wesley and Wesleyan theologies from a Southern African perspective Not only were Wesley s interests wide ranging as are the topics in this book but he managed to present a theology that is simultaneously reasonable deeply spiritual and socially engaged That is the excellent mix that this book offers Topics covered include Environmental ethics Postmodernism African ecclesiology Wesleyan theology mission gender issues same sex homosexuality Biblical interpretation Truth youth African theology Methodism Qualitative Educational Research Wendy Luttrell,2010 A comprehensive anthology that helps deepen students thinking about their qualitative research purposes questions and decision making
