The Sunroom Beverly Lewis,2005-10-01 When I was twelve I made a naive yet desperate pact with God to keep my ailing mother alive It was the first time I'd ventured something so brazen making a contract with the Almighty So begins the story of Becky Owens a talented and passionate young pianist on the verge of adolescence when she learns the devastating news of her mother's critical illness As the daughter of a country preacher in Lancaster County Becky knows well the significance of sacrifice and in her bargain with God she vows to exchange her most cherished possession for her mother's life Hospital rules only add to Becky's sorrow twelve year olds aren't allowed to visit so Becky and her mother must share tearful smiles through Lancaster General's sunroom window But a realization of the power of music and a lesson in unconditional love compel Becky to rethink her deal with God and the sunroom becomes a place where miracles happen
