Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey, 2007-04 2006 Iowa Poetry Prize winner In Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey embraces the possibility that we can learn as much from objects as we can from other people from the inanimate as much as the animate Each poem descends upon a place and a time takes a few notes and then leaves quietly without slamming any doors Sunday Houses the Sunday House reveals what the world is like when your attention is focused elsewhere when your head is turned the other way In ineffably beautiful verse Hughey captures moments in time and place with confidence but without being judgmental Although it may seem that the scope of these poems is rather small a good party a couple of eggs a housekeeper's daydream they reveal both a deep intelligence and a spirit of whimsy Gertrude Stein wrote that she wanted to be drunk with nouns and in a sense that is what Hughey has accomplished here
