Living Theodrama Wesley Vander Lugt, 2016-05-13 Living Theodrama is a fresh creative introduction to theological ethics Offering an imaginative approach through dialogue with theatrical theory and practice Vander Lugt demonstrates a new way to integrate actor oriented and action oriented approaches to Christian ethics within a comprehensive theodramatic model This model affirms that life is a drama performed in the company of God and others providing rich metaphors for relating theology to everyday formation and performance in this drama Different chapters explore the role of the triune God Scripture tradition the church mission and context in the process of formation and performance thus dealing separately with major themes in theological ethics while incorporating them within an overarching model This book contains not only a fruitful exchange between theological ethics and theatre but it also presents a promising method for interdisciplinary dialogue between theology and the arts that will be valuable for students and practitioners across many different fields African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-11 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt s Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here London George Laurence Gomme, 1914 The Nation, 1922 Transactions East Hertfordshire Archaeological Society, 1906 Annual Report of the Superintendent of Common Schools New York (N.Y.).
