Navy Directory United States. Navy Department,1924 Catalogue of the Naval and Marine Engineering Collection in the ... Museum ... Science Museum (Great Britain),1911 French Warships in the Age of Steam 1859-1914 Stephen S. Roberts,2021-10-31 This outstanding book will be essential for future studies of naval policy in the period between la Gloire and the Great War The Naval Review This book is the first comprehensive listing in English of more than 1400 warships that were added to the official French navy fleet list between 1 January 1859 and World War I It includes everything from the largest battleships to a small armoured gunboat that looked like a floating egg Reflecting the main phases of naval policy the ships are listed in three separate parts to keep contemporary designs together and then by ship type and class For each class the book provides a design history explaining why the ships were built substantial technical characteristics for the ships as completed and after major reconstructions and selected career milestones including the ultimate fate of each ship Following the earlier volumes written jointly with Rif Winfield French Warships in the Age of Sail 1626 1786 and French Warships in the Age of Sail 1786 1861 this trilogy now provides a complete picture of the development of French warships over a period of almost three centuries As a technical reference on the French ships of 1859 to 1914 this book is a must for the serious naval architecture student modeler or enthusiast So much solid information is packed in this book arranged logically clearly and with so many illustrations I cannot see where another volume on this subject can compete Highly recommended Nautical Research Journal Superlatives abound in describing this book arguably the finest naval shiplist ever created Warship International Time Briton Hadden, Henry R.
